Locating Periodicals

information literacy program

Step 1: Start from the libraries' homepage http://library.louisville.edu

Step 2: Click on Journal Finder. The following screen will appear:

Step 3: Click in the text box and type in the title of the journal.
Note: If you have additional information from a citation, you also have the option of entering this information here.

Step 4: Scroll down and click on or hit Enter.
A box will appear with several options:

- If the journal is available online, you will be shown in which database it is covered and the dates of availability.
- Click on the GO button and it will take you to a list of the full-text online volumes.

- The paper version may also be available.
  - Click on the GO button and it will take you to Minerva, the online catalog.
  - Check to see if we have the volume and issue number needed.
  - Note the location and category (i.e. Recently Received, Library Has or At Bindery)
  - Look at the chart on the back of this sheet to see where your volume will be located.
- If the library does not subscribe to the journal that you need, you may still be able to get the needed information through Interlibrary loan.
  - Click on GO in the Interlibrary loan option and it will take you to the Interlibrary loan screen. Log on. If you are a first time user, click on the First Time User link to create a user name and password.
