Debost, Michel. The Simple Flute : from A to Z. New York: Oxford University Press, 2002.

Alphabetically arranged, covering many aspects of flute playing. Each essay is concluded with "In a nutshell" and "Please refer also to" boxes.

Toff, Nancy. The Flute Book : A Complete Guide for Students and Performers. Second edition. New York: Oxford University Press, 1996. (Price: ca. $30)

Call number: ML 935 .T65 1996

This is a wonderful resource for flute players! The book is divided into 5 sections:

- The Instrument
  Choosing a flute, care and maintenance, history, flute family, etc.
- Performance
  Breathing, tone, vibrato, articulation, technique, style, performance, recordings, etc.
- The Music
  Articles about music in the Baroque, Classic, Romantic, and Modern Eras.
- Repertoire Catalog
  Baroque, Classic, Romantic, and Modern Era, as well as study materials (methods, exercises, etc.).
- Appendices
  Fingering chart, lists of flute manufacturers, repair shops, sources for music and books, flute clubs, etc.

The bibliography section of this book includes many citations to articles and books on flute topics. It is organized by topics as well and is a great place for beginning any research related to flute.
