

The Sam and Kathleen Stringfield Graduate Student Travel Award Application

The Sam and Kathleen Stringfield Graduate Student Travel Award is intended to support the research and professional development of graduate students in the College of Education and Human Development at the University of Louisville. Awards of up to $500 are available to support costs associated with presenting a paper at a national conference (e.g., the American Educational Research Association, the American Psychological Association, or the Society for Research on Educational Effectiveness).

Applications should be made after the paper has been accepted by the conference organizer and should be submitted to the Chair of the Research and Faculty Development committee. Applications are accepted year-round.

Name: _____

Department: _____

Status (Master's or Doctoral): _____

Title of Presentation: _____

Conference: _____

- Please attach:
1. An abstract describing your presentation (500 words or less).
 2. A brief budget justification of anticipated costs.
 3. A confirmation of acceptance to the conference.

Student signature: _____

Faculty advisor signature: _____

For committee use only

Award