

2011 Summer Enrichment Programs

Program	Contact	Phone	Email	Web/Deadlines/Dates
PEPP – Pikeville Program – For students in grades 9-11. Enrichment in math and science and exposure to health professions. (2 week program in Pikeville) Pikeville College: School of Osteopathic Medicine	Katie L. Leslie	502-852-8109	Klfarm02@louisville.edu	http://louisville.edu/medschool/diversity/pre-college
2011 PEPP Program For incoming freshmen	Katie Leslie	502-852-8109	Klfarm02@louisville.edu	June 17-July 15 Deadline to apply: March 1
Health Wise For students grades 6-12 Enrichment in math and science and exposure to health professions.	Dedra DeBerry	502-772-8305 or 502-778-1608		June 6 – July 1 Application available by calling 502-778-1607
Upward Bound (year round) Assists students from first generation and/or low income families who exhibit academic potential in graduating from high school and that desire to go to college. Enrichment in literature, composition, math, and science on the UofL campus after school, on Saturdays and during the summer.	Stacey Thompson Andre Foster Roy Sutton	502-852-6719	Stacey.thompson@louisville.edu Asfost02@louisville.edu Rlsutt01@louisville.edu	www.louisvilleupwardbound.net Apply online No deadline First come, first serve Waiting list now.

INSPIRE – Increased Student Preparedness and Interest in the Requisites for Engineering Presented by J.B.Speed School of Engineering – Summer program targeting minority high school students.	Brenda Hart	502-852-0440	Brenda.hart@louisville.edu	http://louisville.edu/speed/inspire.html Dates: June 8 – July 1
ACAP – Accounting Career Awareness Program A career development program for Minority High School Students interested in a career in accounting.	Julia Karcher	502-852-4821	Julia.karcher@louisville.edu	http://nabaqlc.org/ACAP/ACAP.html Applications are available now. Deadline to apply: May 6, 2011 Dates of program: June 13-17 University of Louisville
Brown Cancer Center Summer Research Internship program This day program provides high school sophomores, juniors and seniors and a limited number of college undergraduates with hands-on scientific research experience. Each is assigned to a faculty researcher mentor in whose laboratory they work. They also have a chance to present their work in poster sessions.				Applications are being accepted for the Summer Research Internship Program at the James Graham Brown Cancer Center. Participants commit a minimum of 20 hours per week for eight weeks from mid-June to mid-August. Deadline to apply is April 11. Details at http://www.browncancercenter.org/NewsReleases/tabid/71/Default.aspx?id=46
Camp Shakespeare Strives to bring high quality theatre education to children ages 4 – 18.	Melinda Crecelius	502-574-9900	Melinda@kyshakes.org	www.kyshakespeare.com