

Sing Your Song

An Evening With Gina Belafonte

Daughter of Harry Belafonte

Thursday, November 3, 2011

What good is a conscience
if it is not awakened.

5pm Screening of Sing Your Song
and Keynote Address
Chao Auditorium, Ekstrom Library

Gina Belafonte, an actress and activist, joins us to share her life experiences and the 2011 Sundance award-winning film she co-produced, Sing Your Song. The film is an up close look at a great American, Harry Belafonte. A patriot and champion for worldwide human rights, Belafonte is one of the truly heroic cultural and political figures of the past 60 years. Significantly, the film presents a look at the Civil Rights Movement through the eyes of an insider, a man who, despite his high profile as an entertainer, wasn't afraid to dedicate his life to being on the frontlines. From Harlem to Mississippi to Africa and South Central Los Angeles, Sing Your Song takes us on a journey through Harry Belafonte's life, work and most of all, his conscience, as it inspires us all to action! For more information on the film, visit <http://www.hbo.com/documentaries/sing-your-song>.

Co-sponsored by Office of the Vice Provost for Diversity and International Affairs

Peace and Justice Weeks is sponsored by the Muhammad Ali Institute for Peace and Justice at the University of Louisville. For more information, visit us at www.louisville.edu/aliinstitute or call us at 502-852-6372.

HARRY BELAFONTE

SING YOUR SONG

