Still Shackled: Afro-Brazilians in the 21st Century

PAULO ROGERIO NUNES DOS SANTOS holds a current Fulbright Humphrey Fellowship, a presidentially appointed fellowship program in the United States for experienced professionals from designated countries throughout the world. Fellows are selected based on their potential for leadership and their commitment to public service. Paulo Rogério is co-founder and executive director of Instituto Mídia Étnica, a leading Afro-Brazilian media NGO in Brazil. His news website, CorreioNagô.com, features a myriad of stories on human rights, technology and culture diversity, written and edited by Paulo. In addition to his media experience, Mr. Rogério has worked with several NGOs and foundations on the issues of Corporate Social Responsibility and Entrepreneurship. Paulo's main goal is to launch a TV channel in Brazil dedicated to programming for minorities and cultural diversity.
