

Priorities – Department of Philosophy

Priority 1a. Improve success rates of philosophy majors

Base

Achieve five year average graduation rate of philosophy majors of 10
Increase the number of declared majors by 5%
Improve QMS survey mean response by graduating majors to 3.20

Intermediate

Achieve five year average graduation rate of philosophy majors of 12
Increase the number of declared majors by 7%
Improve QMS survey mean response by graduating majors to 3.25

High

Achieve five year average graduation rate of philosophy majors of 14
Increase the number of declared majors by 10%
Improve QMS survey mean response by graduating majors to 3.30

Priority 1b. Increase faculty research productivity

Base

Achieve a total number of research grant proposals submitted of 2
Achieve a total number of publications (articles in refereed journals and book chapters) of 10
Achieve a five year average of refereed presentations and papers sponsored by national or international organizations of 10

Intermediate

Achieve a total number of research grant proposals submitted of 3
Achieve a total number of research grant proposals awarded of 1
Achieve a total number of publications (articles in refereed journals and book chapters) of 12
Achieve a five year average of refereed presentations and papers sponsored by national or international organizations of 12

High

Achieve a total number of research grant proposals submitted of 4
Achieve a total number of research grant proposals awarded of 2
Achieve a total number of publications (articles in refereed journals and book chapters) of 14
Achieve a five year average of refereed presentations and papers sponsored by national or international organizations of 14

Priority 1c: Build diversity while building quality

Base

Maintain the total number of full-time women faculty at 2

Maintain the total number of African-American faculty at 1

Maintain the total number of students of color who major and minor in philosophy at 12%

Intermediate

Increase the total number of full-time women faculty to 3

Increase the total number of African-American faculty to 2

Increase the total number of students of color who major and minor in philosophy to 14%

High

Increase the total number of full-time women faculty to 4

Increase the total number of African-American faculty to 3

Increase the total number of students of color who major and minor in philosophy to 16%