Masolo

Department of Philosophy

“Reading Shaaban Robert”

Friday, January 27, 2012

3:30 pm, Bingham Humanities Room 300

Convinced that the post-post colonial condition is long overdue, Masolo’s current interests are to generate local debates through readings of indigenous authors and intellectuals. It is in this light that he engages in the translation into English of this prominent East African writer’s works.

Faculty Research Forum, an ongoing project of the Commonwealth Center for the Humanities and Society (CCHS), offers research-based talks for an interdisciplinary audience by U of L faculty and occasional guests.

Faculty Research Forum is open to all: faculty, students, staff, and the public.
Refreshments will be served!
