

Commemorating 50 Years

MARCH ON WASHINGTON FOR JOBS AND FREEDOM

August 28, 1963

August 28, 2013

UofL COMMISSION ON DIVERSITY
& RACIAL EQUALITY

UofL Human Resources

Office of the Vice Provost for Diversity and International Affairs

Office of the Vice President for Business Affairs

Office of the Provost

Office of Diversity and Inclusion

LGBT Center

The University of Louisville will commemorate the 50th anniversary of the 1963 March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom. Come and join us for these activities:

1:00 PM Panel Discussion- “Reflections on Dr. King’s Dream”
Shumaker Research Building, Room 139

2:15 PM March led by President, Provost and other Officials Begins at West Lawn. Ends at Ekstrom Library Quad.

2:25 PM UofL’s International Jazz Quartet Performance
Ekstrom Library Quad. Refreshments Served.

2:45 PM Afternoon Program in Quad
The program includes remarks from President Ramsey, a keynote address, and much more!

5:00 PM Showing of Brother Outsider - About March on Washington organizer, Bayard Rustin
Chao Auditorium of Ekstrom Library