

Experiences of Marginalized and Underrepresented Students in the time of COVID-19

The Commission on Diversity and Racial Equality (CODRE) invites students, staff and faculty to a virtual panel discussion to hear our students talk about their experiences as the country and Kentucky deal with the consequences of the COVID-19 pandemic.

This discussion will be held on Thursday June 18th from 12:00 p.m. - 1:00 p.m.

in Microsoft Teams Live the link is:

Students will speak about the issues they have encountered during COVID-19. The Chat Box will be available for questions. We invite student's to share their problems encountered and there resolutions.

Commissioners and Resource People will be at hand to take note of the issues and provide guidance as needed.

Please contact CODRE Commissioners for questions or follow-up:
