

Tuesday, April 12, 2011

Transformation Tea, Ekstrom Library (Chao Auditorium and lobby area), 3 p.m.-5 p.m.

The Transformation Tea is an opportunity for university and community women of color and allies to become empowered by sharing concerns, problems and positive suggestions. The 2011 Tea topic is "Today's Woman: Building Healthy Relationships." Ms. Paula McCraney will be keynote speaker.

Known for her quick wit and energetic presentation style - motivational speaker and trainer Paula McCraney lives her life with the understanding that to whom much is given much is required.

Paula McCraney

Paula is CEO of P Mc & Associates (Professional Management Consultants). P Mc & Associates is a performance consulting company that provides advice, leadership and value-added assistance in the areas of human resources management, organizational change, personal and professional training and development, strategic planning, marketing and public relations. Between client projects, Paula serves as a substitute teacher and teaches various core courses (science, math, history, language arts, etc.) at elementary, middle and high schools in Southern Indiana. She possesses a State of Indiana Teacher's Permit.

Paula is a skilled workshop facilitator and speaks nationally to corporations and for women's retreats, conferences, corporate strategic planning sessions and non-profit civic organizations. She has given high-impact presentations to LG&E, AEGON, Spalding University, the University of Louisville, Greater Louisville Inc., the Kentucky County Clerk's Association, and many other businesses, non-profit organizations and churches.

The Transformation Tea program will include networking opportunities and the presentation of the SHEro Award. Reservations are requested.

Nominations for the "Unsung SHEro" Award are now being accepted. To be eligible, the nominee must be a woman of color who is presently a university employee and who has made a significant impact in the lives of women either in the Metro Louisville community or on the University of Louisville campus. The deadline to receive nominations is Friday, March 18. For a nomination form and criteria, e-mail Phyllis M. Webb, phyllis.webb@louisville.edu, or Georgette Moore, glmoor01@gwise.louisville.edu.

For more details about the event, contact Susan Rhodes, Chair, at slrhod01@louisville.edu.

To RSVP for Tea attendance, please contact Georgette Moore at 852-2029 or email glmoor01@gwise.louisville.edu no later than April 1, 2011.