• The survey will be broken up into two (2) modules.
• Each module will be administered once every two (2) years, with an opportunity for a follow up of clarifying questions from the previous year on each new iteration.
• This cycle allows some time for survey data to be analyzed, shared, and action plans to be created and implemented before the topics are reassessed to measure improvement.