June 18-21, 2007

Louisville, Kentucky

Kentucky Teacher Network for Civic Education and Engagement will host a professional development workshop in Louisville.

DESIGNING A STANDARDS-BASED UNIT OF STUDY ON FORMATION OF KENTUCKY'S GOVERNMENT AND U.S. GOVERNMENT

TRAINING PARTICIPANTS WILL:

- develop a standards-based unit of study that is aligned with enduring understandings and essential questions for fourth and fifth grade social studies developed by the Kentucky Teacher Network for Civic Education.
- integrate technology, differentiated instruction, and formative and summative assessments into the standards-based unit of study.
- receive a $500 stipend for attending the training and completing the follow-up task of designing a lesson.
- receive FREE resources on content, technology, differentiated instruction, and assessment.
- be provided meals, lodging, and reimbursement for mileage.
- be eligible to receive 3 hours graduate level credit from the University of Louisville for their participation.

To enroll in the Formation of Government training, please mail, fax, or e-mail the attached registration form before May 15, 2007. Participation is limited to 15 teachers at each grade level. You will be notified of your acceptance to participate by May 20, 2007. Directions, lodging information, and meeting agenda will be sent the first week of June.
