

Resume or Curriculum Vita

Along with other relevant information, in your resume or curriculum vita please include: home and office email addresses; scholarly/professional writings and creative activities; active involvement and leadership in professional and community activities; and professional and academic honors and recognitions.

Submit your resume or curriculum vita as part of your PhD application to the Teaching and Learning Doctoral Program (address on “Applicant Directions” form).