

CURRICULUM VITAE

LATRICIA POSEY BRONGER

University of Louisville
College of Education and Human Development
Tricia.bronger@louisville.edu

Education:

- 2008 Presently enrolled in doctoral study, University of Louisville
- 2005 Completed post-graduate coursework, University of Louisville
- 2002 Completed post-graduate coursework, Bellarmine University
- 1998 Master Degree in Special Education, University of Louisville
- 1991 Bachelor of Science in Education, University of Louisville
Certificate for teaching in Early Elementary Grades K-4, 5 and 6
Certificate for teachers of Exceptional Children: Learning and Behavior Disorders, Grades K-12
- 1986-1988 Jefferson Community College, Louisville, Kentucky
- 1982-1986 Assumption High School, Louisville, Kentucky

Teaching Experience:

- 2008-2006 Instructor, College of Education and Human Development, University of Louisville
Special Education Methods-Secondary Instruction and Assessment
Classroom Management
- 2004-1999 Adjunct Professor, College of Education, Bellarmine University
Graduate and Undergraduate Level professor
Collaboration and Mainstreaming
- 1999-1991 Learning and Behavioral Collaborative Teacher. South Oldham High School, Crestwood, Kentucky. Various responsibilities included Lead Collaborative Consultant at the district level, Managed teachers of Exceptional Children Education, Managed student teachers and intern teachers, Monitored student progress relative to (IEP) Individualized Educational Programs, Provided Professional Development to District Content and Special Education teachers, Effective Schools Council: Lead/Chair of Effective Schools Committee, Lead/Chair of Scheduling Committee, Lead/Chair of Student Study Team, Lead Care Team facilitator, Director of Special Programs liaison, Lead Teacher of Extended School Services, Lead Parental Involvement Coordinator, Director of SADD, Director of Sigma Delta Gamma,

Summer-bridge Coordinator and teacher for at-risk youth, Administrative Think Tank Council, Assistant athletic Director, Head Softball Coach.

1991-1984 Meredith-Dunn Learning Center, Teacher K-8, Literacy and Mathematics
Assistant Director of Meriday Learning Center, Lead Teacher of Primary Enrichment Program. Lead Primary and Intermediate teacher for Literacy and Mathematics
Related arts and teaching assistant for Meriday pre-school program.

Educational Partnerships:

2008-2006 Kentucky Department of Education liaison with University of Louisville
2008-2004 Learning Disabilities Association of Kentucky, Board member
2008-2004 Kentucky Autism Training Center, Board member

Related Educational Experiences:

2008-2001 Strategic Intervention Model Professional Developer for Learning Strategies and Content Enhancement.
2005-1999 Kentucky Department of Education (KDE). Office of Teaching and Learning- Assistant Director of Curriculum Development, Learning Strategies Branch Manager, Exceptional Children Consultant.
1999-1997 Member of Adjunct Committee, KDE: Implementation of Program of Studies: Diverse Learner Strategies with concentration of Algebra I and Language Arts/English Models for mild disabilities, Collaboration Strategies, Gifted and Talented education, Advanced Education Students. Education Consultant for Oregon University and New York BOCES.
1997-1995 Education Consultant: Providing Professional Development for public and private schools in Kentucky, Kentucky System Change Project, Schools Are For All Kids: Together We're Better- Jefferson County Schools, Council for Exceptional Children Conference, and in conjunction with Kentucky Department of Education Initiatives.
1991-1990 Goshen Elementary, Extended School Services
1991-1990 Student Teaching and Practicum: Wilder Elementary, Waggener High School and St. Gabriel Elementary: Concentration with students with Learning Differences and Behavioral needs

Educational Recognition:

1998 National Professional Resources, Inc. Standards and Inclusion: Can we Have Both?
1995 Oldham County Secondary Teacher of the Year
1995 Stella A. Edwards State Teacher of the Year Finalist
1994 South Oldham High School Teacher of the Year

Professional Associations:

Council for Exceptional Children
Teachers of Speakers of Other Languages
Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development
National Council for Staff Development
Kentucky Autism Training Center (KATC) Board member
Learning Disabilities Association (LDA) Board member

Publications:

Co-Author, Education Article for Kentucky Teacher
Co-Author, Kentucky Department of Education Professional Development Standards: Partnership for Kentucky Schools
Editor, 2001 Revised Kentucky Autism Technical Assistance Manual for Students with Autism by Kentucky Department of Education