

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION & HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

CEHD Insider - December 2015

College, Alumni, Student News, and Special Events

CEHD News

Peters Receives Early Career Award

Sue Peters, Associate Professor in the Department of Middle and Secondary Education, has been selected to receive the 2016 Association of Mathematics Teacher Educators (AMTE) Early Career Award. She will be presented the award at the 2016 AMTE annual conference, which will be held in January. The award recognizes outstanding contributions to mathematics teacher education through research and practice.

SPAD Partners with Central High School

The Sport Administration program (SPAD) in the Department of Health and Sport Sciences (HSS) has partnered with Central High School (CHS), a JCPS Business Marketing Magnet, to offer a Sports Marketing Magnet program beginning in spring 2016. Anita Moorman,

Professor, and Gin Presley, Instructor and Undergraduate Program Coordinator, both in HSS, are assisting CHS in creating interest and recruiting students to careers in the sport industry. The program will include sport marketing and event curriculum, event management job shadowing, professional industry speakers, a case study competition, and a dual-credit course for seniors at the school.

Tretter Panelist for STEM Webinar

Tom Tretter, Professor in the Department of Middle and Secondary Education and Director of the Gheens Science Hall and Rauch Planetarium, was a panelist for the ACT Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) webinar in November. The webinar discussed findings in the 2015 STEM Condition Report, such as student interest in STEM majors and occupations; the rationale behind the development of the ACT STEM categorization of STEM majors and occupations; and offered insight into the recent development of the ACT STEM Benchmark and how it impacts student preparation for STEM careers. Read the report... <http://www.act.org/stemcondition/15/pdf/Kentucky.pdf>

Bay-Williams' Grant Featured in KSBA

Jenny Bay-Williams, Professor and Chair in the Department of Middle and Secondary Education, received a $400,000 grant from the Kentucky Department of Education for the project, "A2=All in for Algebra." She is working with some of the top math teachers in the Carroll County School District and the Kentucky School Boards Association (KSBA) recently featured an article about their work. Read more... <http://www.ksba.org/protected/ArticleView.aspx?iid=6GYIB3I&dasi=3G32>

George-Jackson Presents at ASHE Conference

Casey George-Jackson, Assistant Professor in the Department of Educational Leadership, Evaluation and Organizational Development, presented two papers at the Association for the Study of Higher Education (ASHE) conference in November. The papers are titled, "Tipping Points: Doctoral Students and Consideration of Departure," and "Doctoral Departure: A comparison of domestic and international students." <http://www.ashe.ws/page.asp?page=567>

Chisholm and Whitmore Receive Funding from JHFE

James Chisholm, Assistant Professor in the Department of Middle and Secondary Education, and Kathryn Whitmore, Professor and Endowed Chair of Early Childhood Education, received $59,000 from the Jewish Heritage Fund for Excellence to support their co-authored books on arts-based approaches to the study of Anne Frank. The book will share findings from their spring 2015 research project, which investigated engagement, embodiment, and empathy in teaching and learning about the Anne Frank narrative in four Louisville middle schools.

Like us on Facebook:

<http://www.facebook.com/uofeducation>

The University of Louisville is an equal opportunity institution.

Submit Items to the Insider

The CEHD Insider is an internal newsletter designed to inform faculty and staff about college news and events. Information such as research, presentations, publications, awards, conferences, meetings, or special events will be featured in each edition. If you have news to share, please send to dorothy@louisville.edu, or call 502-852-2639.

Courtade Appointed to CEC Committee

Jim Heiden, President of the Council for Exceptional Children (CEC), appointed Ginevra Courtade, Associate Professor in the Department of Special Education, to the CEC's Professional Standards and Practice Committee (PSPC). The appointment begins in January 2016 and ends in December 2018. In addition, Dr. Courtade's article, "Evidence-Based Practices for Learners with Severe Intellectual Disability," (co-authors David Test and Bryan Cook), was listed by Research and Practice for Persons with Severe Disabilities as one of its top-read articles. Read more... <http://rps.sagepub.com/content/39/4/305.full.pdf+html>

Exercise Science Hosts Annual Internship Fair

The Department of Health and Sport Sciences' Exercise Science and Physiology program hosted its 3rd Annual Internship Fair in early November. The event gives undergraduate and graduate students the opportunity to meet with representatives from local businesses to discuss options for internships. Jessica Gibb, Instructor and Accreditation Coordinator, planned the event and stated that approximately 60 students were in attendance.

Pennington Presenter at OCALI

Rob Pennington, Assistant Professor in the Department of Special Education, presented, "Creating a climate for competency: An instructional approach to challenging behavior," and, "Innovation practice in teaching writing to students with ID/ASD," at the Ohio Center for Autism and Low Incidence.

T&L Faculty Serve as Panelists for P-16 Council Meeting

The following Teaching and Learning faculty members served as panelists at a P-16 Council Meeting hosted by the Ohio Valley Educational Cooperative (OVEC) in November: Harrie Buecker, Liaison for District and School Partnerships, served as moderator; panelists were John Finch, Interim Chair of the Department of Early Childhood and Elementary Education (ECEE); Jenny Bay-Williams, Chair of the Department of Middle and Secondary Education (MISE); Lori Norton-Meier, Associate Professor in ECEE; and Mikkaka Overstreet, Director of the Minority Teacher Recruitment Project. The discussion focused on Common Core Standards and Teacher Dispositions.

Simmons Presents at DCDT

Tom Simmons, Associate Professor in the Department of Special Education, presented, "Kentucky's College and Career Ready Assessment and Accountability Model for Students in Alternate Assessment and Diploma," at the Division on Career Development and Transition (DCDT) conference, which was held in Portland, Oregon in November.

Shuck, Rose, Bergman Horrible Bosses Radio Interview Now Online

Brad Shuck, Kevin Rose, and Matt Bergman, Assistant Professors in the Department of Educational Leadership, Evaluation and Organizational Development, were interviewed about their Horrible Bosses study by Mark Hebert on his radio show, "The Ville." Listen online at...<https://soundcloud.com/uofl/nov-16-2015-uofl-today-horrible-bosses-study-dibiasi>

Pregliasco Receives NASPA Award

The Student Affairs Administrators in Higher Education, (NASPA), has selected Bridgette Pregliasco, retired Assistant Professor in the Department of Educational Leadership, Evaluation and Organizational Development, to receive the Pillar of the Profession Award. The award pays tribute to a select group of people who have provided stellar leadership and service to the student affairs profession. The class of Pillars will be honored at the 2016 NASPA annual conference, which will be held in March.

Faculty Publications

Shuck Article Selected by Emerald

Brad Shuck's article, "Exploring employee engagement from the employee perspective: Implications for HRD," has been selected by Emerald to appear in New Perspectives in Employee Engagement in Human Resources. This volume is part of Emerald Gems, which brings together some of the most highly cited, read and innovative research in its field. Emerald Gems is one of the largest international publishing houses. Dr. Shuck is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Educational Leadership, Evaluation and Organizational Development. Read more about the publication... <http://www.amazon.in/Perspectives-Employee-Engagement-Resources-Emerald/dp/1785608738>

SPED Faculty and Student Publish Article

Tim Landrum, Chair of the Department of Special Education (SPED), Rob Pennington, and post doctoral scholar, Chris Sweigart, published the article, "The Effect of Real Time Visual Performance Feedback on Teacher Feedback: A Preliminary Investigation," in Education and Treatment of Children," http://muse.jhu.edu/journals/education_and_treatment_of_children/toc/etc.38.4.html.

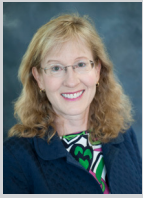

Herd, Alagaraja, and Cumberland Publish Article

Ann Herd, Meera Alagaraja, and Denise Cumberland, Assistant Professors in the Department of Educational Leadership, Evaluation and Organizational Development, published the article, "Assessing Global Leadership Competencies: The critical role of assessment centre methodology," in Human Resource Development International. Read more... <http://www.tandfonline.com/action/showAxaArticles?journalCode=rhrd20>

Submit Items to the Insider

The CEHD Insider is an internal newsletter designed to inform faculty and staff about college news and events. Information such as research, presentations, publications, awards, conferences, meetings, or special events will be featured in each edition. If you have news to share, please send to dorothy@louisville.edu, or call 502-852-2639.

Dr. Herd also published, "Teaching and Training Cases--The Case of "Not Enough Time:" Using GROW and Motivational Interviewing Coaching Frameworks," in New Horizons in Adult Education & Human Resource Development. Read more... <http://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/doi/10.1002/nha3.20110/abstract>

Carpenter, Et Al. Publish Article

Bradley Carpenter, Assistant Professor in the Department of Educational Leadership, Evaluation and Organizational Development, along with former CEHD faculty members Beth Bukoski and Tiffanie Lewis, and other co-authors, Matthew Berry and Kimberly Sanders, published, "The Complexities of Realizing Community: Assistant Principals as Community Leaders in Persistently Low-Achieving Schools," in Leadership and Policy in Schools.

Student News

The School of Interdisciplinary and Graduate Studies has selected Victoria Bennett and Shannon Stone, both doctoral students in the Curriculum and Instruction program, to receive the Graduate Dean's Citation, which will be presented during the Doctoral Hooding Ceremony on December 18th.

The CEHD Honors and Scholarship Committee has selected Amanda Mitchell, a student in Counseling and Personnel Services with a specialization in Counseling Psychology Ph.D. program, as the Outstanding Graduate for the December 2015 Commencement Ceremony. She will carry the CEHD banner and lead the graduating class at the ceremony.

Kathy Cash, doctoral student in Curriculum and Instruction, won third place in the Doctoral In-Progress category at the Research & Evaluation Network's Research Gala for her paper, "Ability Grouping and Mathematics Affect: Gender Differences in Mathematics Self-Perceptions and Enjoyment in Students with High Potential." The paper was presented at the National Association for Gifted Children (NAGC) national conference. The paper is not her dissertation but a project Cash began during supervised research with Jill Adelson, Associate Professor in the Department of Counseling and Human Development. Cash is also serving as Treasurer of the NAGC Stem Network for the next two years.

Brittany Inge, doctoral student in the Department of Educational Leadership, Evaluation and Organizational Development (ELEOD), Jake Gross, Assistant Professor ELEOD, and Pamela Fowler published the article, "Preparing for HEA Reauthorization: Recommendations for Practitioners," in the Journal of Student Financial Aid.

Lauren Evanovich, a doctoral student in the Curriculum and Instruction program, was selected to receive the Dr. M. Celeste Nichols Professional Development Award, which is given to students for travel or other professional development needs. The award was presented to Evanovich during the annual UofL Women's Empowerment Luncheon. She was one of three students selected for the award.

Kappa Delta Pi, Eta Omicron Chapter, welcomed 23 new members on November 8th: Alexandra Allemann, Karima Badouan, Kara Capps, Rachel Carden, Kelsey Clark, Kathryn Crow, Amy Curtsinger, Lindsay DeVary, Katherine Enzweiler, Caroline Fitchett, Miranda Geyer, Braxton Hall, Kayla Hall, Molly Hall, Amber Huser, Rachel Medley, Olivia Orberon, Scott Patton, Jessica Peazzoni, Micaela Wang, Sarah Williams, Madison Wills, and Emily Zuccaro. In addition, the KDP hosted a free viewing of, "Teach: A Documentary," in November at the CEHD. All teacher prep students were invited to attend. The documentary was hosted by Queen Latifah and explores the art and passion of teaching.

Upcoming Events

- Laser Holidays Party
December 5th, 1 - 4 p.m., Gheens Science Hall and Rauch Planetarium. Activities for the whole family. Admission is $5 per person.
- Information Session: Education Leadership Programs
Monday, December 7th, 5 - 6 p.m., Gheens Academy, Flex B Meeting Room AND Monday, January 4th, 4 - 5 p.m., Bullitt County Board of Education
ELEOD Information Sessions for the Ed.S., Ed.D., and Ph.D. Education Leadership programs, and the Director of Special Education and Superintendent certifications.
- Holiday Open House
Wednesday, December 16th, 2 - 3:30 p.m., Dean's Office Suite
All CEHD faculty and staff are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.
- December Commencement Ceremony
Friday, December 18th, 7 p.m., KFC Yum! Center. For details, visit, <http://louisville.edu/commencement>.

Teaching Endorsements Now Online

The Classroom Reading (CRE P-12) and Instructional Technology (ITE P-12) endorsements are now offered completely online. The online endorsements can be completed as stand-alone programs or as part of the Master of Education in Teacher Leadership or the Rank I program. Learn more at <http://uofl.me/p12online>, or call 1800-871-8635.

Submit Items to the Insider

The CEHD Insider is an internal newsletter designed to inform faculty and staff about college news and events. Information such as research, presentations, publications, awards, conferences, meetings, or special events will be featured in each edition. If you have news to share, please send to dorothy@louisville.edu, or call 502-852-2639.

