Gross Receives Prestigious NASFAA Award
Jacob Gross, Assistant Professor in the Department of Educational Leadership, Evaluation and Organizational Development, was presented the National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrator’s (NASFAA) Golden Quill Award during an award ceremony that was held at the organization’s annual conference. This award is given to scholars each year based on their contributions to literature on student financial aid. Dr. Gross is the most junior faculty member to ever receive this award and joins top scholars who have been previously honored by NASFAA. In addition, Dr. Gross recently attended a national meeting that included academics from across the country where he moderated a session with Jamienne Studley, the Deputy Under Secretary of Education, on the Obama Administration’s college rating system.

Howell and Teachers at Westport Middle Design New Orientation
Penny Howell, Associate Professor in the Department of Middle and Secondary Education, worked with teachers at Westport Middle School to design and coordinate an orientation program for sixth graders who were making the transition to middle school. The program helped ease students’ fears and concerns when going from elementary to middle school. Westport Middle School is a Signature Partnership school and a site for the CEHD’s clinical model of teacher preparation. The Courier Journal featured an article about the orientation on August 7, 2015.

Bay-Williams Selected for KCAS Challenge/Review Team
Jenny Bay-Williams, Professor in the Department of Middle and Secondary Education, and Ryan Davis, CEHD doctoral student in the curriculum and instruction program, were selected to participate on the Kentucky Core Academic Standards (KCAS) Challenge for Mathematics Review/Revision Team. The team will synthesize feedback from the past year to propose revisions that have merit for improving the overall quality of mathematics standards and outcomes for students.

Dumas Article Featured in AACTE Publication
Tia Dumas, Postdoctoral Fellow and Project Manager in the Nystrand Center, was recently featured as a Mentor of the Month and invited to submit an article in the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education (AACTE) Holmes Scholars newsletter, The Scholar’s Report. The publication is designed to foster mentoring relationships between the National Association of Holmes Scholars Alumni (NAHA) and Holmes Scholars members. Read the article...http://aacte.org/email_blast/holmes_scholars/index_08-12-2015.html

Chisholm and CEHD Graduate Publish Article
James Chisholm, Assistant Professor in the Department of Middle and Secondary Education, and Sarah Flaherty, a graduate of the B.S. in Middle and Secondary Education program and 6th grade English language arts teacher at Bullitt Lick Middle School, co-authored an article that appeared in the Kentucky English Bulletin (KEB), (Volume 64, Issue 2). The journal is published by the Kentucky Council of Teachers of English/Language Arts. The article titled, “An Analysis of Text Complexity in Young Adult Literature,” was guided by Flaherty’s honors thesis project that Dr. Chisholm mentored during her senior year at the CEHD.

Sun Publishes Book
Jeffrey Sun, Professor in the Department of Educational Leadership, Evaluation and Organizational Development, and his co-editor, Dr. Susan Bon of the University of South Carolina, published a book, Law & Educational Inequality: Removing Barriers to Educational Opportunities, which examines how laws have eased the effects of educational inequality within the P20 educational setting.

Submit Items to the Insider
The CEHD Insider is an internal newsletter designed to inform faculty and staff about college news and events. Information such as research, presentations, publications, awards, conferences, meetings, or special events will be featured in each edition. If you have news to share, please send to dorothy@louisville.edu, or call 502-852-2639.

Like us on Facebook:
http://www.facebook.com/uofleducation

The University of Louisville is an equal opportunity institution.
Balkin and Washington to Represent CEHD at GEAR UP

Richard Balkin, Professor and Program Coordinator for Counselor Education (Ph.D.) and School Counseling, and Ahmad Washington, Assistant Professor, both with the Department of Counseling and Human Development, will represent the CEHD at the first Kentucky School Counseling and Advising Institute, which will be hosted by GEAR UP Kentucky and the Reach Higher Initiative. The two-day conference will explore successful practice, evaluation, and relevant research to create dynamic school counseling programs that engage the whole school community to ensure students are prepared for college success.

CEHD Adjunct Instructor a Featured Artist at Kazakhstan Event

Carrie Neumayer, an Adjunct Professor in the Department of Early Childhood and Elementary Education, was selected to be a featured artist in Kazakhstan’s ArtBat Festival. The month-long event began on August 27th and draws artists and art lovers from around the world. Read more...https://louisville.edu/uofltoday/campus-news/art-education-instructor-to-be-featured-at-kazakhstan-festival.

Norton-Meier Presents at ABI Conference

Lori Norton-Meier, Professor in the Department of Early Childhood and Elementary Education, was a presenter at the second International Argument-Based Inquiry (ABI) Conference, which was held in Spokane, WA. The CEHD also sponsored one of the meals served at the conference. The conference explores benefits of argument-based inquiry in science, math, and language art classrooms. Learn more about ABI, http://abic.education.wsu.edu/.

Jean-Marie Publishes Book

Gaetane Jean-Marie, Professor and Department Chair for Educational Leadership, Evaluation and Organizational Development, and co-editors, Steve Sider, Wilfrid Laurier University, and Charlene Desir, Nova Southeastern University, published a new book titled, Comparative International Perspectives on Education and Social Change in Developing Countries and Indigenous Peoples in Developed Countries. The book illuminates research and collaborative initiatives between authors and local leaders in developing countries’ and indigenous peoples in developed countries’ efforts to solve the complexity of social inequities through educational access and quality learning.

Terson de Paleville and HSS Students Publish Article

Daniela Terson de Paleville, Assistant Professor in the Department of Health and Sport Sciences, and CEHD exercise science students, John P. McCulloch Michael A. Kloby, and Matthew D. Love, were co-authors on an article titled, “Prediction of maximal oxygen consumption from rating of perceived exertion (RPE) using a modified total-body recumbent stepper.” The article will appear in an upcoming issue of the International Journal of Exercise Science. This is the first time the students have published an article.

In addition, Dr. Terson de Paleville recently published an article in Respiratory Physiology and Neurobiology. The article is titled, “Compensatory muscle activation during forced respiratory tasks in individuals with chronic spinal cord injury.” Douglas Lorenz, Assistant Professor in Bioinformatics and Biostatistics at UofL, was a co-author on both articles.

Bernstein and SPAD Students Attend National Conference

Gary Bernstein, Instructor and Sports Administration (SPAD) Internship Director, along with SPAD students Christina Franck, Alan Hudelson, Chiny Asher, Emily Russ, Jeffery Levine, Gabi Biderham, Andrea Marie, Lauren Herich, Mikaela Matifis, attended the Doha GOALS conference. GOALS, the Gathering of All Leaders in Sport, brings together corporations, policy makers, student ambassadors, athletes, and more to discuss how sport can act as an agent of social change and economic progress. The students will develop and implement a special project during this school year for the local community based on what they learned at GOALS.

Shuck Presents at ATD Kentucky Day of Learning

Brad Shuck, Assistant Professor in the Department of Educational Leadership, Evaluation and Organizational Development, will be a presenter at the Kentuckiana Association of Talent Development (ATD) Day of Learning. The title of his presentation is, “Going Beneath the Surface: Exploring the Principle’s that Really Drive Employee Engagement.” Learn more about the event...http://www.astd-ky.com

Submit Items to the Insider

The CEHD Insider is an internal newsletter designed to inform faculty and staff about college news and events. Information such as research, presentations, publications, awards, conferences, meetings, or special events will be featured in each edition. If you have news to share, please send to dorothy@louisville.edu, or call 502-852-2639.
Student News

International Travel - Toronto, August 2015

Students and faculty in the Department of Health and Sport Sciences worked as volunteers for the ParaPan American Games, which were held in Toronto, Canada this year. Read about their experience and see photos... http://ulouisville-il-cehd-toronto2015.blogspot.com/

ELEOD Doctoral Seminar Video Created for Leaders and Learners

Students in the cohort, “Block ’17 EdD,” and the ELFH 710 Doctoral Seminar are featured in a video that centers on developing leadership preparation curriculum that supports leaders serving diverse learners. The video has been shared with the University Council of Educational Administration (UCEA) as part of a continuing project (FIPSI grant). Learn more about the Leaders to Support Diverse Learners Project (LSDL), http://www.ucea.org/resource/lsdl-modules/.

HSS Student Receives First Petrino Family Scholarship

RA’VONTE HARBIN is the first recipient of the Cardinal Covenant Petrino Family Foundation Scholarship. He is a graduate of St. Francis High School and plans to major in the CEHD’s sports administration program. Coach Petrino stated that Harbin may also have the opportunity to intern for the UofL football team and the Petrino Family Foundation. Read more... Courier Journal, Wednesday, August 5, 2015 issue, Sports section.

HSS Student Athlete Wins National Championship

KELSI WORRELL, Exercise Science major, won the 100-meter butterfly at the USA National Championships in San Antonio, TX.

CEHD Student Named CHRO of the Year

HRD Today Magazine selected KAWEL LAUBACH, a Graduate Student in the CEHD M.S. in Human Resources and Organizational Development Program (MSHROD), as the Chief Human Resource Officer (CHRO) of the Year. Kawel is the Chief Human Resource Officer for the Mohegan Tribal Gaming Authority, which is based in Connecticut.

ECPY Students Presented at APA Convention with Dr. Patrick Possel and Dr. Jill Adelson

- B. CAULEY and S. WINKEL JOHN BLACK - “Teaching Behavior and Students’ Positive and Negative Affect: Does Students’ Race/Ethnicity Matter?”
- C. M. PIT TARD - “Inferential Style, School Teachers, and Depressive Symptoms in College Students”
- A. C. BJERG - “Development and Concurrent Validity of an Instrument to Measure Student-Reported Teaching Behavior”
- S. ROANE, and A. M. MITCHELL - “The Relationship Between Hopelessness, Depressive Symptoms, and Blood Pressure”
- R. J. SMITH - “Hardiness, social support, and parenting stress in adolescent mothers” and, “Teaching Behavior and Student Depressive Symptoms: Effect of Perceived Teacher-Student Similarity”
- K. M. VISALLI, and A. D. BARNARD - “The influence of parenting behavior on positive and negative affect in elementary age children”
- S. WINKEL JOHN BLACK - “Rumination, Worry, and Drinking Behaviors in College Students: A Mediation Analysis”; “Hands on stats: A guide to basic statistical analyses”; “Peer review journals: Reading and responding to a reviewer letter”; and “Psychological mechanisms explaining drinking to cope after negative alcohol consequences”

Alumni News

RYANNE NOEL LUTTRELL, B.S. in Organizational Leadership and Learning Program, will serve as the new Human Simulations Instructional Specialist and Lab Coordinator for the Allied Health Program at Jefferson Technical Community College in Louisville, KY.

A study by JUDI VANDERHAAR, Ph.D. in Educational Leadership and Organizational Development, and MARCO MUNOZ, Ed.D. in Educational Administration, and retired professor Dr. Joseph Petrosko, was cited in a Courier Journal article about JCPS’s alternative schools. The study found a high incidence of students cycling back into disciplinary alternative schools. Read the article... Courier Journal, Monday, August 3, 2015.

Upcoming Events

- Saturday, September 12th, 8 a.m. - 2:30 p.m. Kentucky Literacy Conference
  Boone Center, University of Kentucky
  Learn more and register... http://www.kentuckywritingproject.com

- Saturday, September 19th, 9 a.m. UofL and American Heart Association Heart Walk
  CEHD Team Captain: Mike Jett, HSS Exercise Physiology
  Please join the CEHD team in raising funds for this event. Register to walk or donate online at http://heartwalk.kintera.org/faf/search/searchTeamPart.asp?event=1126077&lis=0&kntae1126077=7E029AED6FAD4C1A93C2B9F14032C988&team=6389222

Gravemeyer 30th Anniversary Celebration

- See details for upcoming CEHD events... https://louisville.edu/education/about/gravemeyer

Submit Items to the Insider

The CEHD Insider is an internal newsletter designed to inform faculty and staff about college news and events. Information such as research, presentations, publications, awards, conferences, meetings, or special events will be featured in each edition. If you have news to share, please send to dorothy@louisville.edu, or call 502-852-2639.