

International Teaching Experience

Belize, Central America

April 29-May 11, 2017

College of Education and Human Development students (Bachelor's degree student with 60 hours of credit and M.A.T. degree students) in teacher education programs are eligible for the International Teaching Experience in Belize.

Faculty and Trip Leader:

Dr. Margaret Pentecost, Dr. Lateefah Id-Deen, Dr. John Finch, Ryan Rathmann

Application to Program:

September 1 – September 25, 2016

Selection Notification Date: October 5, 2016

Course:

EDTP 397 98

EDAP 696 98

Four mandatory 2-hour class sessions

The classes will meet from 7:30 – 9:30 p.m. on dates to be announced.

Total cost of trip: $2250 and tuition for the 3 credit course

Trip Fee Includes:

Airfare, Hotels, Food, Excursions, Transportation, UofL Polo Shirts for Work Days, and Travel Insurance Student Card

Does Not Include:

Passport - Required (Not included in cost above.)

Scholarships Available:

Each student accepted for the ITE 2017 experience will receive a $700 scholarship to be applied to the trip costs listed above.

Experience: Students will spend 6 full days working in Belize schools. On the weekends, the group will participate in cultural experiences such as visiting a Mayan ruins, a rainforest, and a coral reef.

