

J. Gorman and Mary E. Conliffe Scholarship

Deadline for Application: April 15

The J. Gorman and Mary E. Conliffe Scholarship is awarded to undergraduate students pursuing any degree at the University of Louisville. This scholarship will be awarded to a student who demonstrates academic promise but faces documented financial limitations in the pursuit of the degree. This scholarship will be used to help meet the expenses of an undergraduate education. This scholarship is renewable throughout the recipient's undergraduate school career so long as the recipient maintains a 2.5 GPA, participates and documents ten hours of volunteer service per semester at a Louisville Area homeless shelter and continues to satisfy criteria herein.

* The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) for the year you are applying for this scholarship must be completed and on file in the Financial Aid Office. This form determines financial need.
