

TRANSFERRING TO UofL?

We know just the place to call home.

CARDINAL TOWNE, an apartment community managed by UofL Campus Housing, offers a home at the epicenter of student life, made just for transfer students and other upperclassmen.

Amenities include:

- Leases to fit your needs (12-month and 9-month available)
- De-stress and relax in the pool and exercise room
- A variety of study rooms perfect for studying alone or with a group
- On-site student and professional staff to assist with any needs you might have

Prices begin at $2,726 for the fall semester. A $225 per semester meal plan is also required for Cardinal Towne.

New this fall, UofL is creating a Transfer Student Themed Community within Cardinal Towne to help transfer students transition to the Cardinal family. The community connects students who share the transfer experience and provides resources to support transfer students.

Cardinal Towne is just one of many housing options available to transfer students. Explore the full range of options at uofl.me/transferhousing.
