

Movie Night With The Dean

An Historical Perspective of Health Care Providers as Portrayed in Film

4:00 PM - 6:30 PM

Baxter 1 Auditorium

Pizza and Popcorn will be served

Admission is Free for UofL Faculty,
Staff, Students & Alumni
CME Credit Is Available

To Register, Go To <http://tinyurl.com/I9tfab>

This series of film discussions will be hosted and taught by Edward C. Halperin, MD, MA, Dean of the University of Louisville School of Medicine. Each of the films was selected because of its portrayal of physicians or other health care professionals. Together, they will provide viewers with insights into the ways in which health care providers have been viewed by society, through the eyes of film makers, during the twentieth century. Each session will focus on a single film, with a discussion following the viewing of the film.

Movie Schedule:

Tuesday, Dec. 1, 2009
Arrowsmith (1931)

Tuesday, Feb. 16, 2010
Dr. Kildare's Strange Case (1940)

Tuesday, March 23, 2010
People Will Talk (1951)

