University Resources

Distance Learning Library Services (DLLS)
Distance Learning Library Services (DLLS) – This service exists to provide online library research support services to Distance Education students, instructors, and staff at the University of Louisville.

Digital Media Suite (DMS)
Digital Media Suite (DMS) – The DMS offers access to equipment and support for the creation and editing of images, sound and video. Using the latest tools, students can access, analyze, evaluate and create multimedia projects. Specially trained tutors are available to assist students with class projects and to offer technical support.

The Digital Media Suite is located on the first floor of Ekstrom Library and is a collaborative effort by the University Libraries, the Digital Learning Center, and Reach.

Disability Resource Center (DRC)
Disability Resource Center (DRC) – The University of Louisville is committed to equal opportunity for all academically qualified students and does not discriminate based on disability. The mission of the Disability Resource Center (DRC) is to coordinate services that ensure individuals with disabilities have equal access to take full advantage of the University’s educational, social, and cultural opportunities. For more information, please visit the DRC, Belknap Campus, Stevenson Hall, Louisville, KY 40292, (502) 852-6838, (502) 852-6824 fax.

Library Citation Sources
University Library's Guide to citing sources. This guide provides links to resources that help with citing sources with links to the many style guides and other sites.

The Miniature Guide to Critical Thinking Concepts and Tools
The Miniature Guide to Critical Thinking (aka the 'little blue book') supports and illuminates the university's shared approach to critical thinking and contains practical resources for faculty who wish to explicitly integrate critical thinking into teaching and learning practices.