

The US Department of Education has mandated a change in the way all institutions collect and report race/ethnicity data. All employees are asked to verify their race/ethnicity data beginning April 1 through ULink. See other side of postcard for more details.

Name

Department

Campus Address

Be Counted. It's Happening Here.

louisville.edu

What? The U.S. Department of Education has mandated a change in the way institutions collect and report race/ethnicity data. All UofL faculty and staff are asked to verify their race/ethnicity via ULINK.

When? Beginning April 1

How? By logging in to ULINK, you can review, verify or update your race/ethnicity status.

For background information and instructions on using ULink to verify/update your race/ethnicity status, go to <http://louisville.edu/institutionalresearch>, then click on the icon for “Changes in Race/Ethnicity Collection & Reporting” on the left side.

Where? You can log in from home or work. Computer access is also available at the following locations (with on-site assistance):

Belknap — REACH/iTech Zone (lower level of MITC)
Monday-Thursday 8AM-8PM; Friday 8AM-4PM
Human Resources 1980 Arthur Street
Monday-Friday 8:30AM-5PM

HSC K-Wing — Room 3008 Monday-Thursday 8AM-9PM; Friday 8AM-5PM

Questions??? Please contact Bob Goldstein, Associate University Provost at rsgold03@louisville.edu or Becky Patterson, Director, Institutional Research and Planning at rspatt02@louisville.edu

Office of Academic Planning & Accountability
Office of Human Resources