

For help with any of the items listed below, please email intcent@louisville.edu with the information requested.

-Airport Pickups

If you would like an American volunteer to pick you up at the airport, we would be very happy to arrange this for you. Please let us know your name, gender, and airline information as soon as possible. We are excited to meet you!

-Temporary Housing

Sometimes, it takes a few days to make your housing arrangements after you arrive in Louisville. Don't worry! We have families that are happy to host you in their homes for a short time. Just let us know when you are arriving, and they will be happy to meet you at the airport.

-Housing Needs

Volunteers are waiting to help you find a suitable apartment in Louisville. Please let us know if you would like an apartment for yourself, or whether you would like to share with a roommate. We will help you find the right place. We are excited to meet you and make your stay in Louisville a wonderful experience.

-Contact Family Program

Are you worried about meeting new friends in Louisville? Or maybe you're just curious about American culture. We have American families that are curious about your culture too. They have volunteered to host international students during the year. They want to include you in their family holidays, and shopping trips, and home life. Just let us know, and we will connect you with a family or a single person interested in learning about your culture!

-ESL (English as a Second Language)

Don't worry about your English skills! We have friendly people to help you! Just let us know if you are interested in private tutoring, or group lessons, and we will arrange it for you!

-Shopping Partner

We have American volunteers who are eager to meet you! They know all the best shopping areas in Louisville, as well as the international stores where you can find your favorite foods from home.

-Activity Calendar

OASIS is an organization sponsored by InterVarsity Christian Fellowship and seeks to provide a relaxing, fun, home-like environment for international students. OASIS provides a free meal on Friday evenings, cultural discussions, activities and an interesting field trip each month. Come join us for all the fun activities that are available through OASIS!

-Dinner Group

Are you interested in visiting an American home, but not sure you have time for a Contact Family this year? Then the Dinner Group is ideal for you. An American family or couple will invite you and a few other internationals to dinner at their home, four times this year. You will get to visit an American home, eat American food, and see how Americans live. This is a great way to exchange culture and make friends.
