Contagious Disease

Contagious diseases are spread through person-to-person contact.

Protect others by covering your nose and mouth when you cough.

Wash your hands often with soap and water.

Use hand sanitizers.

Avoid touching your mouth, nose and eyes.

If sick, stay away from others.

Seek medical attention if symptoms become severe.