Dear Prof. Moore:

I am pleased to tell you that you and your co-authors have been selected to be the recipients of the 8th Annual Florence W. Vigilante Award for Scholarly Excellence in recognition of the best article published in Volume 39 (2019) of the Journal of Teaching in Social Work.

As announced in Volume 33(1), the award will be given annually in honor of the founding editor of the Journal. The article you co-authored, titled "The Dehumanization of Black Males by Police: Teaching Social Justice -- Black Life Really Does Matter" merits this recognition based on its outstanding scholarship and creativity.

Taylor & Francis, the publishers, will be sending you an Award Certificate, and will note your award in their online display at the forthcoming virtual CSWE APM meeting this fall. We will also be recognizing your achievement in the forthcoming Vol. 40, No. 5 issue of the Journal. In addition, I am pleased to note that you each will be receiving a small cash award from the publishers. Please accept my congratulations on your grand achievement.

Sincerely,

Paul A. Kurzman
