

Dear Prospective Student:

Thank you for your interest regarding the Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) Program at Kent School of Social Work. The program began in Fall 2007 and is fully accredited by the Council on Social Work Education. We are pleased to know that you are interested in our program as a place for you to continue your professional development.

The Kent School BSW Program accepts applications for Fall semester enrollment at a variety of points within the year. The early bird application deadline is February 15, the traditional application deadline is May 15, and the late application deadline is July 15, if slots are still available. Please note that a limited number of students are accepted into the BSW Program each academic year.

To be considered for acceptance into the BSW Program, you need to submit several documents. Please see the BSW Application Checklist and carefully follow the directions for the admissions process. An application will be reviewed by the admissions committee once it is complete, so it is strongly recommended that you submit and complete your application process in advance of the deadline.

We hope to hear from you in the near future.

Sincerely,

Noell L. Rowan, Ph.D.
