

THE LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES PROGRAM
INVITES YOU TO ATTEND
THE 1st ANNUAL LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES HERITAGE LECTURE

"The Multiple and Mysterious Values of Culture in Mexican Life"

PRESENTED BY DR. ALBERTO RUY SÁNCHEZ

Alberto Ruy Sánchez (1951) is a fiction writer and essayist from Mexico City. He received his Ph.D. in 1980 from the University of Jussieu, Paris under the directorship of Roland Barthes. His novels include: Los nombres del aire (1987, Premio Xavier Villaurrutia), Los demonios de la lengua (1987), En los labios del agua (1996, recipient of the Priz des Trois Continents for its French translation); and Los jardines secretos de Mogador (2001, Premio Cálamo la Otra Mirada). He has published widely in scholarly journals and is the author of several books of literary criticism, including Una introducción a Octavio Paz (1990, recipient of the Premio José Fuentes Mares). Since 1988 he has served as the editor-in-chief of the journal Artes de México, which has won more than fifty national and international editorial awards. In 2000 he received the Condecoración de la Orden de las Artes y las Letras from the French government, and in 2001 he was invited to Stanford University as the Visiting Tinker Scholar.
