

Day of the Dead Celebration at KMAC this Friday Night!

Come celebrate Dia de los Muertos "Day of the Dead" with the Museum and the UofL Latin American and Latino Studies Program this Friday from 5:00pm – 10:00pm! In conjunction with the First Friday Gallery Hop, the Museum will host festivities that include food, live music, sugar skull and tissue flower workshops, Flamenco and fire dancers, a Frida Kahlo and skeleton costume contest, face painting, puppets, art cars and a candlelit march. Guests are strongly encouraged to wear costumes and masks!

The Museum will construct several public altars, and YOU are invited to bring items to honor artists, friends and loved ones who have passed away. There will also be special altars in honor of the YUMA 14 border crossing victims, the Beverly Hills Supper Club fire victims and Native Americans of the Kentucky and Ohio Valley Region. Mexican folk art from the collection of Phillip S. Cooke will be on display, and a variety of themed artwork will be for sale, including pieces from Penny Sisto, Geoff Carr, Danny Dutton and many more. The Dia de los Muertos celebration is made possible by support from TJ Maxx/TJX Companies, the Hispanic Latino Coalition of Louisville, UPS, Lowry Watkins Jr., Ratterman & Sons Funeral Home and Republic Bank.

This event is free and open to the public! For more information call (502) 589-0102 or visit www.kentuckyarts.org.
