

University of Louisville

Latin American and Latino Studies Program presents

Expressions of Argentine Culture through the Lens of Silvio Fabrykant

A Presentation in English by Argentine Photographer Silvio Fabrykant

Wednesday, October 15, 2014: 2:00-3:00pm in Davidson Hall, Room 207

Silvio Fabrykant (Buenos Aires, 1945) is one of Argentina's premier photographers. During his career, which spans four decades, he has taken portraits of major figures of Argentine culture, including artists, musicians, actors, and writers, and has also created publicity ads for magazines, newspaper and other media, and posters for politicians. His portraits of musicians grace the covers of many albums and CDs and were featured in a 25 year retrospective exhibition in Buenos Aires's Recoleta Cultural Center in the summer of 2014. Other one-man shows at the Centro Cultural Recoleta include a 2001 exhibit entitled "Hombres", with portraits in black and white of male cultural figures, and a second exhibit in 2010, "Más hombres," featuring portraits of prominent figures known for their "ausencia de pelo" or "lack of hair". Many of his portraits of Argentine authors appear on book covers and in magazines. One of his favorite subjects is the internationally acclaimed writer Ana María Shua, his wife and the mother of their three daughters. Shua will also present lectures during their visit to the University of Louisville, October 13-15, 2014.

Foto: José Romero / Télam

Movida y tropical: la Cumbia como expresión de cultura popular argentina

A Presentation in Spanish by Silvio Fabrykant

Monday, October 13, 2014: 11:00-11:50am in Humanities Bldg., Room 202

Sponsored by the Latin American and Latino Studies Program and the Liberal Studies Project

The Liberal Studies Project expands and enriches the intellectual life of the University of Louisville and the wider community through interdisciplinary initiatives such as lectures, workshops, exhibitions, symposia, and the Distinguished Visiting Scholars program.

Latin American & Latino Studies

For more information, contact Dr. Rhonda Buchanan at rhondabuchanan@louisville.edu or 502-852-2034, or visit the LALS website: <http://louisville.edu/latinamericanstudies>.