
Required Prerequisite Coursework

The following prerequisite courses are required for admission to either the Preparatory Phase or the Core Phase. Applicants must also meet the minimum GRE and GPA requirements as well.

For Admission to the Core Phase

1. Bachelor's Degree in Speech-Language Pathology/Communication Sciences and Disorders

OR

2. Satisfactory Completion of UofL's Preparatory Phase Program

OR

3. Transcript Verification (Completion) of the Following Courses or Equivalent Coursework:

a. Clinical Observation (minimum of 25 documented hours)

b. Audiology

c. Speech/Hearing Science

d. Normal Speech/Language Development

e. Phonetics

f. Aural Rehabilitation*

For Admission to the Preparatory Phase

1. Bachelor's Degree (in any field)

For Admission to Either the Preparatory Phase or the Core Phase*

1. Biological Science (except ecology or botany; a lab is not required)

2. Physics or Chemistry (a lab is not required)

3. Math-Based Statistics (a research methods course is not acceptable)

4. Any Psychology, Sociology, or Anthropology Course

KEY

* This course can be waived for admission but must be completed as a component of the graduate program sequence.