

Janice E. Sullivan, M.D., FAAP, FCCM, CPI

Professor of Pediatrics
Vice Chair for Pediatric Research
Department of Pediatrics
University of Louisville

Dr. Sullivan currently serves as the Vice Chair for Research for the Department of Pediatrics, Division Chief of the Division of Pediatric Clinical & Translational Research, and Medical Director of the University of Louisville Pediatric Clinical Research Unit.

Additional roles and accomplishments include:

- Member, Committee on Drugs, AAP
- Member, Membership Committee, Executive Committee Section of Clinical Pharmacology and Therapeutics, AAP
- Member, Sedation Guidelines Committee, Society of Critical Care Medicine
- Member, Steering Committee, NIH funded Pediatric Trials Network at Duke Clinical Research Institute
- Member, Steering Committee, NIH funded IDeA States Pediatric Clinical Trials Network
- Co-Principal Investigator on the University of Louisville NIH funded IDeA grant
- Member, University of Louisville Institutional Review Board
- Received five faculty peer mentoring awards
- Involved in resident, fellow, and junior faculty scholarly projects and focuses on mentoring of junior faculty
- Involved with several task forces and committees within the University of Louisville and Norton Children's Hospital including Pharmacy & Therapeutics Committee, Sedation Committee, University of Louisville Research Advisory Committee, and the Medical Executive Committee
- Has had numerous oral and poster presentations, nationally, regionally and locally as well as given several lectures and presentations to residents, fellows, students and faculty annually
- Authored or co-authored over 60 peer-reviewed publications and 2 book chapters

Dr. Sullivan spent most of her childhood in southern Minnesota. She received her nursing diploma from Swedish Hospital School of Nursing, undergraduate degree from the University of Mankato, Adult Nurse Practitioner Certificate from the University of Minnesota, and her medical degree from the University of Minnesota. She completed her residency in Pediatrics at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences and Arkansas Children's Hospital and a fellowship in Pediatric Critical Care and Clinical Pharmacology at Case Western Reserve University and Rainbow Babies and Children's Hospital in Cleveland, Ohio. She is board certified in Pediatrics, Pediatric Critical Care, and Clinical Pharmacology.