

Jeffrey Grill, M.D.

Associate Professor of Pediatrics
Vice Chair for Community Relations and Outreach
Chief, Division of Pediatric Hospital Medicine
Department of Pediatrics
University of Louisville

Dr. Grill trained in UofL's Department of Pediatrics and served as Chief Resident in 2002 before joining a private pediatric practice. He returned to the Department in 2005 and now serves as Vice Chair for Community Relations and Outreach. He has also served as Chief of the Division of Pediatric Hospital Medicine since 2009. Additional roles and accomplishments include:

- President of the Kentucky Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics
- Director of the "Just for Kids" Hospitalist Service at Norton Children's Hospital
- Member, University of Louisville Physicians (ULP) Board of Directors
- Member, ULP Executive Board
- Member, ULP Compliance and Audit Committee
- Pediatric Track Lead for the Society of Hospital Medicine Annual Meeting Committee
- Member of the Society of Hospital Medicine Pediatrics Committee □
Secretary/Treasurer of the Norton Children's Hospital Medical Staff □ Division recognized as one of the "Top 2 Teaching Divisions" by the pediatric residents for the past three years
- "Teaching Division of the Year", voted by graduating residents, in 2015

Dr. Grill attended Xavier University and the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine. Prior to residency training in Louisville, he served for five years on active duty in the U.S. Navy, primarily as a Submarine and Diving Medical Officer in Japan.