201 ABRAHAM FLEXNER WAY
LOUISVILLE, KY 40202

Fall Family Medicine
Review Registration

The American Academy of Family Physicians has noted, "The scope of an individual family physician's practice changes over time, evolving as competency in current skills is maintained and new knowledge and skill are obtained through continuing education." The purpose of this conference is to meet those educational needs across a broad base and addressing the more common clinical conditions faced by those providers.

The conference is designed for Primary Care Physicians, Nurses, and Physician Assistants. It will benefit individuals at all levels of training in those fields.

Continuing Education Credit

The course has been reviewed and is acceptable for 6 Prescribed credits by the American Academy of Family Physicians.
