7	I have been to the University of Louisville many times with my high school choir, Madrigals. Through all this, I have gotten to see UofL's choirs which were very impressive. Their School of Music and the availability of my degree influenced me greatly to pursue my education here. Also, the faculty that I met were very nice and made me feel comfortable which also helped. Thank you!	May 25, 2011 6:47 PM

15	I really appreciated my admissions counselor, Toni Robinson. She was so helpful and friendly and made me feel very welcome.	May 10, 2011 2:43 PM
16	U of L was my first audition, and I was very nervous; I was told that I messed up in the audition, and that is why I was not accepted. I was accepted into Ball State, Butler and Otterbein, so I don't think I was THAT bad. Even the music students working at the audition said that my voice was wonderful, so I don't think my audition was that bad. Dr. Doan talked to my parents that day, and was very encouraging, but the two instructors who judged me thought I was not good enough, I guess.	May 10, 2011 10:21 AM
17	I felt very welcomed by everyone I met. All the staff and students were very patient and helpful when I came to them with problems.	May 9, 2011 5:19 PM
18	It was a very comfortable and overall enjoyable experience for me, despite the stressful situation of an audition. Bravo!	May 9, 2011 4:40 PM
19	I thought all my conracts with Toni Morrison were positive, informative and supportive.	May 9, 2011 10:38 AM
20	Ms. Toni Robinson was amazing! I was talking with a friend of mine last week who had also applied to UofL and she and I agreed that Ms. Robinson was one of the nicest, most helpful persons at UofL. She was always prompt answering e-mails, most of the time within an hour of sending them. She was always clear and encouraging through all of the paperwork required. She made me and my friend feel that she really wanted to help us, and if UofL was the best fit for us, she would do anything she could to get us there. If it weren't for Ms. Robinson, I would have a very different impression of UofL. The main admissions office lost my transcript and was difficult to communicate with. Ms. Robinson made me feel like I would really enjoy coming to UofL and would be treated like a real person. Unfortunately, the financial aspect didn't work and I won't be able to come, but I will still wholeheartedly recommend the music department and Ms. Robinson.	May 9, 2011 8:56 AM
