The University Club, Louisville Kentucky

About the Club

The University Club was established in 1991 through donations made by the Barry Bingham family of Louisville. The purpose is to operate as a Club that brings together faculty, staff, alumni, and friends of the University of Louisville with a feeling of conviviality in an atmosphere of friendship.

The University Club is a private club that offers an elegant and comfortable environment in which members and guests can meet, socialize, and enjoy fine dining. The Club provides the opportunity to promote collegiality, intellectual exchange, and personal interaction.

Conveniently located on the northeast corner of Belknap campus near Cardinal Boulevard, the Club is close to downtown Louisville and can be easily accessed via I-65, the Watterson Expressway, or Eastern Parkway. A map and directions are included with this packet. For the convenience of the members, the Club provides a parking lot with 200 parking spaces.

Be it a romantic dinner for two, a celebratory meal, or a large conference, our professional catering and event planning staff are happy to coordinate the details of your special event.

Alumni, faculty, staff, friends, and retirees of the University are eligible for membership. Members receive the Club's monthly newsletter (The Connection) and e-mail bulletins. Members also enjoy reciprocal privileges at over 120 clubs throughout the world.

Catering Guidelines

Thank you for your interest in the University Club, where members and guests are offered a professional full-service catering operation in a beautiful non-smoking environment.

Reservations: Private room reservations are based on the availability of dates, times, and the approximate number of people for your event. Confirmation will be sent to the person making the arrangements. Reservations are considered tentative until the Club receives signed confirmation and a non-refundable deposit or credit card information. All events are posted daily on the Lobby marquee.

Rooms: The Club has several rooms available for private use. Club management reserves the right to choose the room or relocate an event to an appropriate room. The Catering Department will assist you in coordinating audio-visual needs. Most rooms have access to telephone lines. Wireless access is available on request. Private rooms have food purchase minimums that must be met in order to avoid room rental fees.

Food & Beverage Service: Your catering needs may be met at the Club or location of your choice. The Club is a full-service food and beverage operation which includes china, glassware, and linen. With the exception of pre-arranged to-go orders and specialty or wedding cakes, food and beverage may not be brought into or taken out of the Club by members or guests. For private events with meals, we ask that you choose one entrée for everyone. In the case of multiple entrées an additional charge, place cards at each seat, and the number of each entrée in advance will be required.

Guaranteed Attendance: The final number of guests must be confirmed no later than 12:00 noon, three business days prior to the event. Room rental will be charged if the number given at the time of booking drops below 50%.

Centerpieces/Decorations/Entertainment: We can provide votive candle centerpieces for evening events. Our Catering Staff can suggest additional decorations, entertainment, vendors, and other services. All decorations must be coordinated and approved through the Catering office prior to the event. Wall/ceiling decorations, strobe lights and smoke machines are prohibited.

Prices/Additional Fees: All prices are subject to change. A service charge of twenty percent will be added to food, beverage, equipment, and services. Applicable Kentucky sales tax will be added to all charges. If the organization is exempt from sales tax, please inform the Catering office when booking the event. A copy of your exemption certificate must be forwarded to our Catering office. Groups that are tax exempt must pay with an organization check or credit card.

Payment: Payment methods for University Departments and Members/Sponsored Guests are as follows:

- University of Louisville Departments: When making the reservation, UofL departments must provide account number and procurement card information or purchase order number
- Members and Sponsored Guests: A signed confirmation letter and non-refundable deposit or credit card information must be provided to confirm the event. The balance is due in advance of the event. Members are responsible for guests' conduct, timely payment, and damages that may result during the event.

Cancellations: Cancellation within two business days of the event requires payment in full; cancellations three to thirty days prior are charged at $3 per person, minimum $50. Charges incurred during the coordination process that present a cost to the Club will be charged in full.

Loss of Property: The University Club is not responsible for property belonging to members or guests.
