

GSH&RP
Gheens Science Hall & Rauch Planetarium
UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE

Sigma Xi, The Scientific Research Society, Louisville Chapter and Gheens Science Hall and Rauch Planetarium

are pleased to announce a free lecture by

Professor Christopher Graney

Physicist and Astronomer with Otter Creek-South Harrison Observatory
Professor of Physics at Jefferson Community & Technical College

Every Star is a Perfect Globe!

Galileo, Marius, and the Earliest Telescopic Studies of Stars

Wednesday, December 2, 2009

Gheens Science Hall & Rauch Planetarium

University of Louisville, Belknap Campus
North Campus entrance, Louisville, Kentucky
(502) 852-6664

Buffet Dinner catered by Bombay Grill

Members & post-doctoral students: $15; non-members: $18; undergraduate students: $10

Reservations for dinner may be made by contacting

Sigma Xi president, Dr. Gerald Willing (gerold.willing@louisville.edu)

6:00 PM - Registration & Buffet Opens

7:30 - 9:00 PM – Free Lecture & Planetarium Show, Q&A