

Student News and Events

Sponsored by
The University of Louisville Student Government Association

August 15, 2010

Table of Contents

Events

1. Follow the Bird
2. Good Morning Commuter
3. Welcome Week 2010: Prepare for Takeoff!
4. Car-Free Lunch Trip to Gray St. Farmers' Market
5. Welcome Weekend Events from FYI and SAB
6. Welcome Picnic
7. RSO Info Fair & SAB Welcome Cookout
8. FREE Pizza and TnT Worship Service
9. FREE FnL Cookout
10. WOW Marketplace
11. From Rape to Restoration
12. Book-in-Common 2010: FREAKONOMICS
13. CARDnival Event

Volunteer, Leadership and Service

14. SOUL 2010
15. Now accepting Freshmen LEAD applications!!!
16. Female Volunteers Needed for HPV Vaccine Study
17. Constipation Study

Scholarship and Career Opportunities

18. Apply to Be a Cultural Center Emissary
19. New Resources and Services offered by the Career Development Center

Clubs and Organizations

20. CPC Funds

Sports, Health and Fitness

21. Football Tickets
22. Belknap Campus Health Services Opens at NEW LOCATION
23. Cardinal Splash Swim School

Miscellaneous

24. A Quick Walk to Class
25. ABI Civil Rights Tour Now Available Online!
26. PCC Child Development Center has spots for UofL families
27. SAC and Red Barn Reservations
28. Like a Locker?
29. Lost and Found
30. UofL Campus Bookstore Offering Textbook Rental Program to Students

Stay Informed

Calendar of Events

Contact SGA

Lost and Found

Emergency Notification

Submit an Announcement for the Student News and Events Weekly Email

We'd Like to Know!
If you are having trouble reading this on your device,

1. Follow the Bird

There is a new way to keep up with events on campus. Be in the know and Follow the Bird on facebook: <http://facebook.com/followthebird>

2. Good Morning Commuter

Every Tuesday morning, 8:30-10 a.m., free Krispy Kreme donuts and John Conti Coffee at George J Howe Red Barn. Submitted by: Teresa Smith, Student Activities

3. Welcome Week 2010: PREPARE FOR TAKEOFF!

Returning students—you'll want to make sure you're back at UofL in time for Welcome Week, August 18-22. It's not just for new students; we want to welcome you back to campus, too! We'll have all the great events you've come to expect: the Annual Homecoming Cookout and Concert, Playfair, Alumni BBQ, Drive-in Movie, Pancake Brunch, SOUL, Cards Under the Stars, and more! There are also great NEW events like Night at the Museum: Mysteries and Magic. Don't miss your chance to hang out with friends and meet new students. For a complete schedule of events, check out <http://louisville.edu/firstyear/welcome>. Submitted by: Katie Partin, Office of First Year Initiatives

4. Car-Free Lunch Trip to Gray St. Farmers' Market

Have lunch at UofL's awesome weekly farmers' market and get to know your local farmers during a special Summer Abundance celebration with music, a cooking demo, and more delicious, healthy local food than you can imagine! —And learn to navigate Louisville without a car on the way! Join us for either a fun 15-minute bike ride or a free 8-minute ride on the TARC bus (with UofL ID) followed by a short walk to the market with a guide. Bring a little spending cash (or debit card) and a bag to carry home some Kentucky Proud goodness! August 19, 10:55 a.m. Cyclists gather outside Grawemeyer Hall at The Thinker statue. Bus riders meet at the TARC stop on 2nd St. just north of Cardinal Blvd. (in the pocket park). Gray St. Farmer's Market, 400 E. Gray St., HSC. Submitted by: Justin Mog, Office of the Provost

5. Welcome Weekend Events from FYI and SAB

First Year Initiatives and the Student Activities Board present two special events for Welcome Weekend. On Friday, August 20 at 9:30 p.m., the annual outdoor theater on the SAC West Lawn features "Date Night" with Steve Carell and Tina Fey. On Saturday, August 21 at 9:00 p.m., students get wet and wild at the Cards Under the Stars extravaganza. Wear your swimsuit! Deejay Prizm spins the tunes. Submitted by: Stuart L Neff, Student Activities

6. Welcome Picnic

What goes better with the first day of class than FREE food in the Red Barn? The Religious Life Association invites all students to enjoy a FREE lunch on the first day of class, Monday, August 23rd, anytime between 11am-1pm. There will be plenty of fried chicken, and even a vegetarian option, so come celebrate a new semester in the Red Barn! Submitted by: Bill Noe, BCM

7. RSO Info Fair & SAB Welcome Cookout

Discover more about over 300 student organizations at the University and which one is right for you. And grab a free burger and dog courtesy of your Student Activities Board. Hundreds of students attend this annual Welcome Back Event: Tuesday, August 24 at the SAC West Plaza and Red Barn. Submitted by: Stuart L Neff, Student Activities

8. FREE Pizza and TnT Worship Service

Come out on Tuesday, August 24th and enjoy great fellowship and meet lots of new friends all while worshipping our great God! We will have FREE pizza starting at 6:30 pm before the service and afterwards there will be a YOUTUBE watch party! New students...returning students...EVERYONE is invited!! Submitted by: Bill Noe, BCM

9. FREE FnL Cookout

Everyone is invited to finish off the first week of classes with a cookout on the BCM lawn next to the SAC ramp. Free lunch will be served from 11am-1pm on Friday, August 27th on the lawn at the base of the SAC ramp. Everyone is welcome to enjoy some FREE food. Plus, this is only the first of many FREE Friday lunches at the BCM. There will be free lunch every Friday at noon at the BCM for the rest of the semester! Submitted by: Bill Noe, BCM

10. WOW Marketplace

Get ready for games, give-aways, music, and prizes in a festive atmosphere at our first ever WOW (Weeks of Welcome) Marketplace. There will be a variety of businesses represented from around the area including but not limited to financial institutions, electronics companies, restaurants, and other retail companies. August 31st between the SAC and Red Barn. Submitted by: Ashlea Boyer, Student Activities

11. From Rape to Restoration

Heather Gemmen Wilson shares her story of being raped, becoming pregnant, and the decision to keep her baby. SAC Multipurpose room. Tuesday, September 14th, 6:00 PM. FREE FOOD! Submitted by: Lauren King, A Woman's Choice on Campus

12. Book-in-Common 2010: FREAKONOMICS

This fall, students all over campus will be talking about Freakonomics by Steven Levitt & Stephen Dubner. This book explores the hidden side of everything, making you rethink every fact you've ever learned. The Office of First Year Initiatives, in collaboration with several departments on campus, will be hosting a variety of events revolving around the themes prevalent in the text. There will be an essay contest, conversation cafes, D3s, and a key note lecture on October 21st. Join us in our campus-wide read and its ensuing dialogue. For more details visit: <http://louisville.edu/bookincommon>. Submitted by: Katie Partin, Office of First Year Initiatives

13. CARDnival Event

During CARDnival, there will be: a performance by the spirit squad, a dunking booth, and many competitions. Come meet your favorite student athletes from all sports and challenge them in their sport. There is no better way to kick off the football season than this. Come out August 21st so we can start getting ready for UK and the rest of the football season. Go Cards!!!

Volunteer, Leadership and Service

14. SOUL 2010

It's time to sign up to participate in SOUL (Student Outreach Uniting Louisville) at Welcome Week on Saturday, August 21st. You can do community service and meet great people before classes even start! Register at <http://louisville.edu/leadership/service-opportunities/soul/soul>. Get a group together, or make new friends at your site. You'll have the opportunity to get to know other students, faculty, and staff, all while performing service in the community. We have a great list of sites this summer, so make sure you sign up! Check out <http://louisville.edu/firstyear/welcome> for updated information about WW, and for directions to sign up for SOUL. Submitted by: Pam Nettle Curtis, Office of Civic Engagement, Leadership

15. Now accepting Freshmen LEAD applications!!!

The Office of Civic Engagement, Leadership and Service is currently accepting applications for its 2010-2011 Freshmen LEAD class. If you are interested in being a part of a dynamic group of emerging leaders, we encourage you to apply. For more information visit <https://louisville.edu/leadership/leadership-service-programs/freshman-lead>. All applications are due by 5:00 p.m. on September 1st. Submitted by: Natasha Ramsey, Civic Engagement, Leadership and Service

16. Female Volunteers Needed for HPV Vaccine Study

Female Volunteers Who have Received Gardasil® are Needed for an HPV (Human Papilloma Virus) Vaccine Study. Dr Stanley Gall, department of OB/GYN, 550 S. Jackson St., is conducting a 7-month study to determine the effectiveness of a new HPV vaccine in preventing 9 types of HPV cervical infection when given to females who have already received Gardasil. To qualify you must be a healthy female 16-26 yrs old, not pregnant and have received the 3 dose series of Gardasil. If you qualify, you will receive study related exams, study drug, and $75.00 compensation at each visit. Call the study coordinator at 561 7469 or email at bharms01@louisville.edu Submitted by: Barbara Armstrong, Dept OB/GYN

17. Constipation Study

Dr. John Wo UofL Healthcare OPC 401 East Chestnut St Ste 300 Louisville KY 40202 is conducting a trial to determine the effects of lubiprostone on small bowel and colon bacteria in patients with constipation. Lubiprostone (Amitiza®) is approved, in the US, for the treatment of constipation. You must have constipation for 6 months. Study related exams, procedures and meds will be provided. You will be compensated for time and travel. Please call 852-3365 or jennifer.eversmann@louisville.edu

18. Apply to Be a Cultural Center Emissary

Passionate about culture, campus environment, cross-cultural interactions, and leadership development? Would you like to get hands on experience advising a university department and helping other students be successful? Would you like to earn a scholarship while doing this?! If so, apply to be a Cultural Center Emissary! We need passionate leaders to really strengthen the work of this team. If you want to be involved visit <http://louisville.edu/culturalcenter/emissaries> to read more and to apply! Deadline to submit application is noon on Friday, August 20th. IMPORTANT NOTE: If selected, you will be required to attend a half-day retreat on Sunday August 29th. Submitted by: Michael Anthony, Cultural Center

19. New Resources and Services offered by the Career Development Center

The job market is tough. But, you can greatly improve your chances by being better prepared than your competition. Preparation takes time and is greatly improved with the expert advice and resources of your professional Career Coach. Check out the new resources offered by the Career Development Center designed to give you the competitive edge in today's job market at <http://louisville.edu/career>. • Card's CareerLink - Register for your free account today and a chance to win one of 20 twenty-five dollar gift cards! • Part-time Job Fair, 9/2/10 in the Red Barn from 11-2pm. • Overnight Resume and Cover Letter Review Service. • Interfolio an on-line reference letter management service. • Interview Stream an on-line video practice interview program. • Career Spots a really cool on-line job search prep video series. • New Career Development Center webpage with lots of new resources just for YOU! Submitted by: Leslye Erickson, Career Development Center

Clubs and Organizations

20. CPC Funds

RSO - need money for your event? Apply to CPC. Deadline to apply is August 27th for events held on or after September 27th. CPC monies are intended to afford RSOs (Recognized Student Organizations) the opportunity to contribute to the quality of campus life by sponsoring special events and programs that may not be possible without this financial assistance. Guidelines and applications are available at the following web address: <http://louisville.edu/student/form/cpcapp> If you have any questions, contact the Dean of Students Office @ 852-5787

Health and Fitness

21. Football Tickets

UofL plays UK in just a few short weeks but you haven't received your football tickets yet. Come out on August 21st at the Tragger Center to CARDnival event to pick up your tickets from 7:00-8:30pm. This will be the first opportunity for you to pick up your tickets for the football season. Freshmen will have the opportunity to swap tickets and sit next to each other. This is a new era for UofL football. Coach Strong and the team have home games against UK, West Virginia and Cincinnati, but you won't be there unless you come and get your tickets. CARDnival will be tons of fun! SGA will also be providing a time in which you can trade tickets with people in your section, so that you may sit next to who you want.

22. Belknap Campus Health Services Opens at NEW LOCATION

The Belknap Campus Health Services office has moved to a larger facility at Cardinal Station that's designed to improve the overall patient experience. The new office, located on Central Avenue, features a large waiting room, internal waiting room for allergy injections, 10 exam rooms, four psychiatry offices, staff offices and improved parking. Health Promotion & PEACC, which are part of CHS, are still at the previous location on Brook Street, just south of and adjacent to the Student Activities Center Learn more about the new facility and see photos at <https://louisville.edu/uoftoday/campus-news/belknap-campus-health-services-opens-at-new-location>. Submitted by: Christy Gambrell, Campus Health Services

23. Cardinal Splash Swim School

Cardinal Splash Swim School is offering swimming lessons throughout the summer for children ages 3&up. Openings are still available for the remaining sessions. For more information, visit www.CardinalSplashSwimSchool.com or e-mail Splash@louisville.edu.
Submitted by: Sarah Thorpe, Athletics

Miscellaneous

24. A Quick Walk to Class

Great friends and roommate environment, convenience, staff who care, and best times. Living on campus is fun. Join this exciting on-campus community and live on campus. For more information check out: <http://louisville.edu/housing>. Submitted by: Dorothea Muller, Housing and Residence Life

25. ABI Civil Rights Tour Now Available Online!

Think it's too hot outside to take a tour of Louisville's civil rights history? Think again! The Anne Braden Institute for Social Justice Research's Civil Rights Tour is now available online in a google map. Check it out at <http://tinyurl.com/29jqonl>. The tour includes 21 local civil rights movement landmarks that wind through several neighborhoods including Old Louisville, Shawnee, Russell and includes sites in Shively and east Louisville. This online version of the tour is best viewed with the Mozilla Firefox browser. Glossy tour brochures are still available for free at the Braden Institute, 258 Ekstrom Library. If you have questions or would like more information, please call us at 852-6142 or contact ABI program coordinator Amber Duke at agduke01@louisville.edu. Amber G Duke, Anne Braden Institute for Social Justice Research

26. PCC Child Development Center has spots for UofL families

The Presbyterian Community Center is opening a new child development center on Finzer Street in the downtown area, and is holding 20 spots open for children of UofL faculty, staff and students. The center is open to children ages six weeks to seven years. Curriculum will focus on pre-reading and pre-writing. Hours are 6 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday through Friday. There is a sliding scale and 4Cs are accepted. For more information, call 583-8914. Submitted by: Janene Zaccone, Communications and Marketing

27. SAC and Red Barn Reservations

Space in the SAC and Red Barn is now available to be reserved for this school year. If your department, club or organization is interested in reserving a table, meeting room, or event location please fill out the reservation form at the website listed below. Submitted by: Ashlea Boyer, Student Activities

28. Like a Locker?

Now renting 3rd floor SAC lockers for Fall 2010 and Spring 2011. Please come by Student Activities W310 to rent one today. Cost: $15.00 cash per semester or $25.00 cash for both semesters. Or logon to: <http://louisville.edu/studentactivities/forms/lockerrequestform>
Submitted by: Ashlea Boyer, Student Activities

29. Lost and Found

If you have lost something on campus, UofL has a lost and found form to help you get those items back. Just go to the website below and fill out the lost and found form. If you have found something on campus, the website below also has a list of lost and found locations you can drop those items off at. <http://louisville.edu/studentactivities/forms/lostandfoundform>
Submitted by: Ashlea Boyer, Student Activities

30. UofL Campus Bookstore Offering Textbook Rental Program to Students

University of Louisville students will be able to save money this semester through an expanded textbook rental program offered by the UofL bookstore. UofL and Barnes & Noble Booksellers, which operates the campus bookstore, are teaming up to offer the program. It will allow students to buy new or used books or to rent them for the semester. The rental price is about half the cost of a new book. For more information: <http://louisville.bncollege.com/webapp/wcs/stores/servlet/BNCBHomePage?storeId=29560&catalogId=10001>

© 2009 UofL

SGA, University of Louisville, Louisville, KY 40292