SPOTLIGHT EVENT: JALSA

Jalsa is the Indian Student Association’s way of celebrating the Indian Festival of Lights, Diwali, with the UofL community. It’s a way to expose the students and community members to the wide variety of traditions Indian culture has to offer.

This year, Jalsa 2015 had approximately 1036 people, with majority of them being students from UofL. Their goal this year was to have more of a "Diwali" feel, so we improved on decorations and food to achieve that. We contacted a professional decorator and worked with them so we could deliver a real cultural atmosphere. ISA started planning for this event early this semester, back in August.
