Volunteer Opportunity

Please share this Opportunity with Students!

City Year works to bridge the gap in high-poverty communities between the support that students actually need and what their schools are designed and resourced to provide. In doing so, we’re helping to increase graduation rates across the country and changing the lives of the students we serve.

Do you believe that all children deserve a high-quality education? Spend a year helping the students that need you the most achieve everything they want to. Head to CityYear.org to gain more information on how you can #makebetterhappen for stu-

Gallup Student Success Model

By Pam Nessle Curtis, Strengths Advocate

Like most life outcomes, student success is a product of many factors. Recognizing that it does not account for all elements that determine academic progress, the Gallup Student Success Model describes how strengths development leads to hope and engagement that, in turn, lead to well-being and academic success. The Gallup Student Success Model depicts hope, engagement, and well-being as intermediary conditions leading to academic success. The model purposefully positions academic success and well-being as equally important outcomes. This is consistent with a belief that both are essential products of sound student development.

Throughout the year, you will see short articles designed to get us thinking about how a strengths focus can impact the measures we are all working to increase, like retention, involvement and graduation.
