Who are your heroes and how do they inspire you?
What are you good at? What are your strengths? How can you use these strengths for good?
Being kind takes both so little and so much effort. When have you experienced kindness? When have you been kind?
Which social justice or community issue do you want to learn about in Louisville?
What do you need to feel confident about your service work today?
1. Who are your heroes and how do they inspire you?

2. What you good at? What are your strengths? How can you use these strengths for good?

3. Being kind takes both so little and so much effort. When have you experienced kindness? When have you been kind?

4. Which social justice or community issue do you want to learn about in Louisville?

5. What do you need to feel confident about your service work today?