

Student Affairs Vibrations

University of Louisville

Winter 2016-17

Table of Contents

Student Affairs Celebrates 40 Years at UofL.....	1
SRC Hosts One Millionth User.....	1
TRIO Student Support Services Meets Graduation Goal.....	2
Construction Activity Continues Around the SAC.....	2
2016 Game Changer Leadership Retreat.....	3
#ChalktheWalk Supports Diversity at UofL.....	3
Homecoming Brings Back Former Kings and Queens..	3
2016 Homecoming Royalty.....	3
Parent of the Year Honored During Family Weekend....	4
Congratulations to the New Mr. & Ms. Cardinal!	4
2016 SACSA Outstanding Graduate Student Award.....	4
UofL Staff Win CPAK Awards	5
Citrus Bowl Service Trip	5
New Student Involvement Video	5
GA Lunch with the VP	5
PDC Sponsors Senate Panel.....	5
Summer Academy Winners	5
Halloween Potluck.....	5
Run with Our Heroes 2016.....	6
Winter Leadership Institute.....	6
Ice Hockey has Great Season.....	6
Intramural Participates in Officiating for Special Events.....	6
A Look at Marketing to Generation Z.....	7
New Social Media and Web Committee	7
Person of Interest.....	7
RSO Spotlight	8
New Staff.....	8
High Fives.....	8
Did You Know?	9
Reference Corner	9
Mark Your Calendar.....	9
Special Thanks	10

Student Affairs Celebrates 40 Years at UofL

The Division of Student Affairs celebrated its 40th anniversary during homecoming weekend, welcoming back former staff and students to recognize the enduring contributions of the past vice presidents of Student Affairs that have led to four decades of progress to support student success.

The highlight of the weekend was an awards ceremony celebrating each of the past vice presidents of Student Affairs. The five past leaders were honored with the inaugural Student Affairs Legacy Awards.

Honorees this year include: Ed Hammond, UofL's first Vice President of Student Affairs; Denny Golden, Vice President of Student Affairs (1988-1994); Denise Gifford, Vice President of Student Affairs (1996-2005), Michael Cuyjet, interim Vice President of Student Affairs (2005-2007); and Tom

Jackson, Jr., Vice President of Student Affairs (2007-2014).

The past vice presidents answered various questions from both the audience and the master of ceremonies, Michael Mardis, the current Vice Provost for Student Affairs and Dean of Students. The discussion included their success during their time at UofL, impact of Student Affairs on student success, and the future of Student Affairs in higher education.

Excerpts from article by Bria Staten-Favors, UofL News

To read more about the event, go to sa40thanniversary.com. Watch interviews with the former vice presidents here.

SRC Hosts One Millionth User

It's hard to believe the "new SRC" is already three years old. During Welcome Week of this fall, the center hosted its' one millionth user! The SRC has generated significant growth in every program area. The structured intramural phase of the program has seen record numbers of teams and participants in every indoor activity and many outdoor programs like flag football and soccer. The group fitness program has established new records in both the total number of classes and the types of classes offered.

This fall, 31 classes featured 15 different types of workouts. The group fitness program also introduced two new classes: basketball skills and conditioning, and an athletic conditioning class. Both provided the opportunity to participate to a new group of students. The sports club program has added new sports and set records for participants in many others. The informal recreation program has seen tremendous growth as well.

TRIO Student Support Services Meets Graduation Goal

TRIO Student Support Services is thrilled to announce that the program has met its 6-year graduation goal. The program's mission is to increase retention and graduation rates for its 140 participants by offering academic, financial, and personal support to Pell-eligible, first-generation college students and students with disabilities. The program set a target of a 50% six-year graduation rate for its students, and it exceeded this rate with a graduation rate of 52%. This data is based off of the performance of students from the 2010-2015 grant cycle, and from the 2015-2016 school year. The program also surpassed its goals of a 75% fall to fall persistence rate (80%), and 80% academic good standing rate (85%) for the 2015-2016 year.

Each year, TRIO Student Support Services submits an annual performance report measuring if the program has met its objectives. The graduation rate was not assessed until the sixth year of the program, which was the conclusion of the 2015-2016 school year. These goals were met via intrusive advising, workshops and seminars based on academic and personal enrichment, and student advocacy. Kathy Pendleton, Director of the TRIO Student Support Services program, stated that, "The TRIO program has consistently met its objectives over the last six years. Meeting the six-year graduation rate is a testament to the hard work of the TRIO staff."

Congratulations to Kathy Pendleton and her staff Ashley Hopkins, Erica LaMarche, and Brenda Powell for the great job they have done meeting these goals!

2015-16 Summary Results for the Standard Objectives
Criteria	Approved Rate	Actual Attained Rate
Persistence	75%	80%
Good Academic Standing	80%	85%
Bachelor's Degree	50%	52%

Construction Activity Continues Around the SAC

The Student Activities Center (SAC) serves the university community for events and a variety of activities. Here's what's happening:

- The University of Louisville

Campus Store opened on January 3. Located on the east first floor, the store features Cardinal apparel and accessories, supplies, gifts, collectibles, textbooks and technology.

- The Multipurpose Room will remain available through the spring 2017 semester for meetings and events. The SAC will remain open throughout the renovation process. Reservations for space in the SAC will not change—go to here to make a reservation request.
- Panda Express is expected to open around February 1, adding a new dining option in the SAC.
- Work will begin in the former bookstore space on the west first floor for the MarketPlace, a new dining concept that will be open by fall 2017.
- Work on the addition will begin this spring. The addition will include a new ballroom, large meeting rooms, lounge space and retail space.

You can find the latest updates at here.

All work on the SAC is expected to be completed by fall 2018. Once completed, the SAC will have a new ballroom with a capacity to hold 1,200 people; a multipurpose room with a capacity to hold 500 people; meeting rooms with a capacity to hold between 30 to 100 people; a renovated theater; conference rooms; large lounge areas; renovated and new dining areas; a new campus store; new retail space; and outdoor plaza areas.

The SAC transformation is another component of the university's commitment to students. Student activities centers—often referred to as the “living room” of campus—provide spaces for students to collaborate, study, dine, shop and build community. UofL is committed to creating a SAC that plays this crucial role, providing a community-gathering venue that serves as a welcoming respite for our students, faculty, staff, and visitors. The SAC will foster an environment for student engagement outside of the classroom which will help enable students to perform better in the classroom.

2016 Game Changer Leadership Retreat

In its third year, the Game Changer Leadership Retreat, a development opportunity for Recognized Student Organizations (RSOs) and student group officers, was held October 14–16.

The participants included two students from the Latin American and Hispanic Student Organization (LAHSO) - Ailen Sanchez and Alex Nava-Mercado; three students from Engage Lead Serve Board - Elshadai Smith-Mensa, Freshmen LEAD director; Caleb Bridgwater, Training and Leadership; and Erin Burke, Communications director. We also had an alum of the program, Phillip Bradley, return to assist as a team facilitator. Our students focused on using their strengths to apply the Five Practices of Exemplary Leadership to achieve a significant goal for their organizations over the coming year.

Special thanks to the graduate students who helped plan and implement the retreat: Catherine Thompson, Zach Smith, Brittany Barnes and Alli Lake. Also, Ron Burse from the Career Development Center served as a workshop facilitator. We appreciate everyone's participation in the weekend retreat!

#ChalktheWalk Supports Diversity at UofL

On November 17, 2016, TRIO Student Support Services students Ayla Baunach, Deantre Perry, Naomi Deeds, and Yomna Amer organized a partnership event in which representatives from the Student Activities Board, Engage Lead Serve Board, The Intersection, Cultural Center programs, and the Muslim Student Association were included. The event, titled #ChalktheWalk, was in response to the recent vandalism of the Thinker statue and national increase in hate rhetoric. Participating students encouraged passers-by to “spread the love” by chalking a positive message on sidewalks in front of the Student Activities Center. The event, which was hugely successful, aimed to contribute to a diverse and inclusive campus. Well over 50 students participated in the event, signing a banner supporting diversity and inclusion once they had chalked a positive message.

Homecoming Brings Back Former Kings and Queens

To commemorate 70 years of Homecoming Royalty, Student Affairs honored 23 former kings and queens dating back from the 1960's through to 2015—representing the last 6 decades.

The following is the list of names of returning royalty and the year they were crowned: Brenda Reid (1960), Beverly Ackerman (1963), Lori J. Chester (1979), Maria V. Lockard Nohalty (1982), Karen Rickert Graehler (1983), Preethi Ananthakrishnan (1992), Ernest Brooks (1992), Alice Davenport Baron (1995), Kevin Trice (1995), James Penny (1999), Pulac Khodadadegan O’Kuma (1999), Shannon Rickett (2000), Lea Thurman (2001), Ryan Massa-McKinley (2003), Supra Parthasarathy (2005), Nathan Parthasarathy (2005), Brian Bennett (2006), Charis Botelho Brooks (2006), Rudy Spencer (2007), OJ Oleka (2008), Olivia Feldkamp (2011), Luke Hancock (2013), and Alex Dotsey (2014).

2016 Homecoming Royalty

Congratulations to this year's Homecoming King, Queen and Court.

The 2016 Homecoming Queen, Keturah Smith, is a senior majoring in Secondary Education Social Studies, from Chattanooga, Tennessee. She is currently a member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated; Student Organization for Alumni Relations; CONECT; and the Student Activities Board Diversity Committee. She was sponsored by the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated.

The 2016 Homecoming King, Jordan

Potts, is a senior majoring in Civil and Environmental Engineering, from Mount Sterling, Kentucky. He serves as the president of the National Society of Black Engineers and is a member of AVIATORs, CONECT, and Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated. He is a recipient of the National Society of Collegiate Scholarship and the Kentucky Transportation Cabinet Scholarship. He was sponsored by the National Society of Black Engineers.

Parent of the Year Honored During Family Weekend

About 1,100 family members participated in the 10th annual Cardinal Family Weekend, Oct. 21-23. Cardinal Family Weekend is a series of events, both at UofL and in the Louisville community, that allows parents and families to reconnect with their student, and for students to share their favorite campus activities with their families.

This year's events included: the Homecoming Parade, Corn Island Storytelling Festival, Parent Family

Tailgate & Cardinal Football game, Sunday Brunch at The Ville Grill and much more. Attendance was a record this year with almost 1,100 tickets sold to the game for families and nearly 600 family members attending the pre-game tailgate.

The Parent of the Year Award ceremony is also held during Cardinal Family Weekend. Now in its ninth year, the award allows students to recognize their parents for the help and support they've given throughout the students' lives.

This year's Parent of the Year Award winner was Sahra Mahbuub, mother of freshman Fadumo Abdullahi. Sahra is originally from Somalia, but relocated to Ethiopia (where Fadumo was born) and then the United States. Fadumo is a Healing Ambassador for the City of Louisville, a Woodford R. Porter Scholar, a National Beta Club Scholar, a Gates Millennium Scholar, and a representative of the legacy of Muhammad Ali. Fadumo's letter was chosen among 65 nominations, a record number of submissions. Sahra took home a large plaque and a copy of Fadumo's nomination letter. You can read Fadumo's letter online.

Excerpts from an article by Bria Staten-Favors in UofL News

Congratulations to the New Mr. & Ms. Cardinal!

Jason Jewell was named Mr. Cardinal. Jessica Morgan was named Ms. Cardinal. The Mr. and

Ms. Cardinal award is given to the top male and female senior who have demonstrated significant contribution to the University of Louisville through co-curricular activities, service to the university and/or Louisville community and achieved a minimum 3.0 GPA.

This year's Miss Cardinal majors in English and Spanish. She is a Governor's Scholar and a Vogt Scholar. She serves as the Student Government Association's Arts and Sciences Council President and Executive Staff. She has served as a member of the PEACC Program, the raiseRED Dance Marathon, Order of Omega President and Chi Omega Sorority.

This year's Mr. Cardinal majors in Political Science. He is a Harlan Scholar, a Woodford R. Porter Scholar, a Martin Luther King, Jr. Scholar and a McConnell Scholar. He serves as a Student Government Association's Arts and Sciences Senator and the Club Programming Committee Chair. He has also served as a president of the Society of Porter Scholars and served as a member of the UofL Honors program, Students Stimulation Conversation and the Task Force Freshman.

2016 SACSA Outstanding Graduate Student Award

The Outstanding Graduate Student Award for 2016 was given to UofL's Alli Lake in November at the SACSA (Southern Association for College Student Affairs) Conference in Jacksonville, Florida. The award recognizes a graduate student for their academic achievement, campus involvement and potential for significant contributions to the Student Affairs profession. Criteria are as follows:

- Enrolled as a full-time student pursuing masters or doctoral work in a Student Affairs-related degree program, with intention of pursuing a career within Student Affairs.
- Demonstrated academic achievement.
- Active involvement and leadership roles in campus activities and organizations.
- Possess a paraprofessional or intern-related position within the Student Affairs Division.

Congratulations All!

UofL Staff Win CPAK Awards

The College Personnel Association of Kentucky (CPAK) has awarded three UofL staff members for their contributions to the field of Student Affairs. Angela Taylor won the Dr. Fred Rhodes Outstanding Service Award. Glenn Gittings won the Innovator Award for his creation of the Bowl Trip Service Project. Olivia Feldkamp won the Outstanding New Professional Award. Congratulations Angela, Glenn and Olivia!

Citrus Bowl Service Trip

The University of Louisville continued its tradition by participating in the 6th consecutive bowl community service project this year. It took place in Orlando during the Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl.

UofL students, parents, faculty, staff, alumni, and fans engaged in a “hygiene kit” building event that will culminate in distribution (by Clean the World) to those in need of basic hygiene materials around the world. More than 300 volunteers packaged recycled soap, shampoo, and other supplies. They also included inspirational notes, which will be distributed with the hygiene kits, for those in need following natural disasters around the world.

New Student Involvement Video

GA Lunch with the VP

Graduate Assistants in Student Affairs had lunch with Michael Mardis and Angela Taylor in honor of Graduate Student Appreciation Week.

PDC Sponsors Senate Panel

Staff Senate representatives, Glenn Gittings, John Smith, Erica LaMarche, and Geri Morgan answered questions for participants at Student Affairs Snack & Learn presented by the Student Affairs Professional Development Committee.

Summer Academy Winners

Winners of the Olympic Games at Summer Academy received their pizza, doughnut and cookie parties.

Halloween Potluck

Run with Our Heroes 2016

Winter Leadership Institute

The Winter Leadership Institute took place on Friday,

December 16. This one-day conference was organized and executed by the Student Affairs Professional Development Committee and graduate students Alli Lake and Makayla Moore. The day was themed “I am Human” and featured nine breakout sessions from university staff, faculty and graduate students with topics including “Understanding the Basics of Islam,” “Black Queer Men in College: (re) Defining Black Masculinity,” and “The Myth of ‘Environmental Sustainability’—Ain’t No Green Without Justice!” The morning keynote address featured Campus Housing Staff member and MBA Candidate Arielle Clark outlining racism, privilege and discrimination at the University of Louisville through her eyes.

With more than 60 attendees, the conference was a great success and the content of the breakout sessions received positive feedback on evaluations from attendees.

Ice Hockey has Great Season

Our Ice Hockey Club team is wrapping up a tremendous semester right now with only 4 games remaining before they break until mid-January. They stand 19-5 right now and are ranked 7th in the American Club Hockey Association’s national standings. They will be climbing in those rankings though after having defeated #6 Rowan University and #16 Virginia Tech in the ACHA Showcase Tournament recently. The team qualified for the national playoffs last year defeating Princeton in an exciting first-round match-up before losing to #1 ranked Penn State in overtime. The team looks to build on that next spring and make another strong run in the post season.

Intramurals Participates in Officiating for Special Events

The Intramural and Recreational Sports staff have always been involved in officiating high school and NCAA sports. Doing so adds to their credibility and allows them to receive high-level instruction to pass on to student staff and program participants.

Recently there were two instances where staff members were recognized for their knowledge and ability by the Kentucky High School Athletic Association. Dale Ramsay was chosen to officiate the recent State Field Hockey Championships. To receive a state tournament assignment means that you are recognized for being one of the best in that particular sport. Kudos to Dale for this significant achievement. Dale has worked 9 other state championships including the prestigious Sweet Sixteen Basketball State Championships.

John Smith was selected to be the supervisor of officials for the recently concluded KHSAA State Volleyball Championships. That means John observed the officials working the tournament, gave the KHSAA input into who should advance in the tournament as well as provided instruction and review of performance for all of the officials. John has worked state championships in volleyball, football, softball, and track and field.

A Look at Marketing to Generation Z

Born in 1996 or later, Generation Z will represent a third of the population by 2020. This generation differs from Millennials in that they are less focused due to living in a high tech, constantly updated world. They are the first generation of digital natives.

Some of the characteristics of Generation Z are as follows:

- They are big on individuality; defy and resent conventional labels
- Want to be seen as diverse
- Attention span is 8 seconds
- Love technology and digital devices,

8 SECOND ATTENTION SPAN

however, also love their time away from technology

- Send more than 100 texts per day on average
- Better at multi-tasking
- 1/3 live in single-parent households, many in multigenerational households
- 76% are concerned about human impact on the planet
- 50% will be university

- educated (vs. 33% for millennials)
- Very open about conversations and gender roles
- Have a global perspective on issues, values, and culture
- Want to have an impact on human rights
- 85% do research online
- Want to know their worlds are safe online and off
- Want to feel supported in healthy decision making
- Often turn to parents, counselors, and friends for help in making big decisions

Gen Zers have higher expectations of loyalty from businesses, brands, and retailers and will go elsewhere if they feel unappreciated. What this means for marketing efforts is that we need to keep our messages very short and to the point. We will need to keep updated with the social media outlets they frequent and use them to lift Gen Zers up and make them feel like heroes. It's important to them for us to talk to them based on their mindsets and not their demographics. They want to be wowed.

concerned about human impact on the planet

We can reach out to them through "green" efforts, human rights campaigns, and healthy events. Authenticity is very important in the messages we send out. Once Gen Zers see something as "worthy," they can become engaged and committed in an obsessive way. Create content that makes them feel comfortable. Although they commonly use social media acronyms (LOL, OMG, etc.) if we use them in our efforts to reach them it sends a message that's unauthentic and fake, so avoid using social acronyms. Create honest, reliable, authentic, and transparent relationships and give value to interaction.

Sources: George Beall and Deep Patel, The Huffington Post; Ologie, This is Gen Z.

New Social Media and Web Committee

A new committee was created within the Division of Student Affairs that focuses on social media and our departments' websites. The committee's charge is to collect regular usage data for each department and share ideas, resources and expertise among those in the division who work with social media and web pages. The idea is to learn what is working well for some departments and drive traffic to websites and social media sites throughout the division. The committee is co-chaired by Susie Cucura and David Horrar. The department representatives are Brittany Barnes, Amy Chambers, Arielle Clark, Colleen Gettys, Caroline Houchins, Aimee Jewell, Tracie Meyer, Nicole Roskopf, John Smith, Kelsea Visalli, Katie Wells, and Ashlea Worner. If you have an interest in social media and would like to work with this committee contact Susie Cucura.

Person of Interest

Samantha "Sam" MacKenzie is the Student Advocate and is located in the Dean of Students Office. The Student Advocate oversees the compassionate and medical withdrawal process; assists students with various problems that arise; helps with crisis and care management; and serves as a resource that helps students navigate educational, personal, and other campus obstacles that impact the successful completion of their academic goals.

Sam's journey to UofL and the role of Student Advocate began in 2007 when she was an undergraduate student here and was selected for Student Orientation Staff (SOS). Her experience as an SOSer lead to an interest in higher education. After graduating in 2010 with a Bachelors Degree in Sports Administration, she began working as an Admissions Officer at Sullivan College of Technology and Design. It was then that Sam decided “higher education was the place for me.”

She worked as a Ticket Office Assistant in the UofL Athletic Ticket Office from 2011–2014 while working on her Master of Education in College Student Personnel degree. Upon graduating in 2014, she accepted the position of Advisor/Student Life Coordinator at Elizabethtown Community and Technical College where she was responsible for advising all distance learning students and coordinating student life, orientation, consumer information and title IX education. Sam accepted the position of Student Advocate in May 2016. Her future goal is to complete a Ph.D. in Higher Education Administration.

Sam’s advice to Student Affairs staff is to take advantage of every opportunity no matter how insignificant it may seem, and to continue to challenge yourself. “Don’t be afraid of trying new things and failing. Get out of your comfort zone. Spend time on professional development. All of these things will help you grow and reach your full potential,” exclaims Sam.

At home, she has two fur babies, Zeke and Tucker. She spends much of her free time serving as the Silent Auction Chair for the Out of the Darkness Walk and as Chapter Adviser for the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority chapter at UofL. Her favorite hobby is reading and she owns over 1800 books! Her goal is to someday read 365 books in a year and so far the closest she has come is 220 in a year. She loves sports, especially football (Go Cards and Packers!). She is also a bit of an adrenaline junkie and loves to skydive.

RSO Spotlight

The 14th annual Phi Kappa Tau Sorority Step Show was held on October 8. The Step Show is a UofL tradition. Every year, all of the proceeds go to benefit their national philanthropy, Hole in the Wall Camps (now known as SeriousFun Children’s Network). These camps, which span the nation, give chronically ill children a chance to enjoy a summer of fun all at no cost to them.

Countless brothers of Phi Kappa Tau, have volunteered at the camps to allow the children to have an unforgettable experience. With the help of the University of Louisville Sororities, they were able to raise and donate $24,385.00 to SeriousFun Children’s Network! Congratulations to Phi Kappa Tau and to everyone who helped make this possible!

New Staff

Rachel Evans is the newest addition to the Counseling Center staff here at UofL. Originally from Dayton, OH, Rachel completed her BFA at Ohio University in Athens, OH. She has since lived in North Carolina and Kentucky over the past 10 years. She first moved to Louisville in 2008 by way of Asheville, NC to pursue her MEd in Counseling with a concentration in Art Therapy. After graduating from UofL in 2010, she worked as an art therapist at a local community mental health organization in Louisville for 4 years where she gained great work experience and obtained her licensure in both counseling and art therapy. Rachel and her partner then moved to Boone, NC, and for the last 2 years she worked at Appalachian State University in the Dean of Students Office and Counseling Center. Although she loved living in the mountains of Western North Carolina, Rachel missed Louisville and decided to move back and be closer to family. “I am so happy to have returned to my Kentucky home and am thrilled by the opportunity to serve UofL students!” she said.

High Fives

Candace Lamb

Career Development Center
Candace gets two High Fives:

“In addition to handling her own caseload of students, she graciously assists other (and especially new) employees by sharing her expertise regarding technology used in the office.” And “Great job Candace for taking the lead and executing on the Career Trek to Brown Forman and partnership with the LGBT Center!”

Ron Burse

Career Development Center
Ron gets two High Fives: “Ron joined our Game Changer Retreat planning team as a session facilitator. He was an invaluable member of the team and helped create a wonderful experience with the students who attended. Thank you for sharing your passion for developing student leaders!" And "Ron brightens my day and has been a delight to work with throughout the past few months. He is the first to lend a helping hand, if you need one, and is always available to bounce ideas off of—which I greatly appreciate. He is a team player and is always there for a laugh."

Aimee Jewell
Career Development Center
 "Thanks Aimee for filling in a pinch and stepping up to help with transportation at our Career Trek to Brown Forman."

Megan Steed
Career Development Center
 "Thank you for taking time out of your busy schedule to help with the PDC event invitations and RSVPs. You are a real life-saver!"

Rosie Shannon
Career Development Center
 "Thank you for taking time out of your busy schedule to help with the PDC event invitations and RSVPs. You are a real life-saver!"

Ashley Hopkins
TRIO
 "I would like to recognize this individual because of her help in submitting the APR."

Submit a High Five here.

Did You Know?

There is a web page for Student Affairs Technology Resources. It links to the Authorized User Agreement and Statement of Responsibility, the HelpDesk, Email setup for mobile devices, IT software, the Outlook 2010 Quick Reference Guide (PC), Plone 4 Users Manual, Student Computer Usage and Access Agreement, UofL Alerts and ULMobile. Just go to this page within the Student Affairs website.

Reference Corner

Here are four websites to keep handy. Click on the buttons here and bookmark them on your web browser. When you have events you want students to attend, be sure to submit them to be placed in the Student News and Events weekly e-mail, Digital TVs and Red Barn Digital Sign. Just click on the appropriate button on the right and follow the directions. The Follow the Bird button will take you to the Student News and Events Facebook page. Feel free to "like" our page.

Mark Your Calendar

- Jan 18 Coffee & Conversation, GAPSA, Red Barn, 9-10:30am
- Feb 15 Coffee & Conversation, Disability Resource Center, 8:30-10am
- Feb 18 NACA Conference
- Feb 20 NIRSA Conference
- Feb 21 SEAHO Conference
- Mar 11 NASPA Conference
- Mar 14 Coffee & Conversation, Counseling Center, 8:30-10am
- Mar 19 ACUI Conference
- Mar 26 ACPA Conference

Arielle Clark

Campus Housing
 "Arielle has really taken on some new tasks in the last few weeks and has truly rocked it. She consistently does awesome work with students and her fellow co-workers. THANK YOU :)"

Evan Keil

Campus Housing
 "Evan has been truly welcoming and wonderful since I have started here. I also find myself going to him for advice and getting ideas for lots of things. I am so grateful to be working with him! He is awesome on all levels :)"

Stuart Esrock

Career Development Center
 "Dr. Esrock has been instrumental in my transition to the university. His assistance throughout the past few months have been much appreciated, and his encouragement has meant the world to me. Dr. Esrock is always willing to assist where he can and share his knowledge as an established faculty member of the university. Thanks, Dr. Esrock!"

Two ways you can help Student Affairs

Special Thanks

The following people helped produce this issue of Vibrations by gathering information, writing, taking photographs, proofreading, submitting articles, and/or submitting photos. Special thanks go to: Mackenzie Adriance, Amy Chambers, Pam Curtis, Rachel Evans, Glenn Gittings, David Horrar, Alli Lake, Erica LaMarche, Sam MacKenzie, Michael Mardis, Kathy Meyer, Frank Mianzo, Makayla Moore, Julie Onnembo, John Smith, Beverly Wolford, Ashlea Worner and all of those who helped produce this issue of Vibrations for your contributions to this newsletter. The Student Affairs "Vibrations" newsletter is edited by Susie Cucura, Student Affairs Publications and Marketing Coordinator, susie.cucura@louisville.edu.

