

What's Happening @ UofL
Week of April 14-20

NEWS

Women's basketball Final Four Celebration/Fan Appreciation event on April 15

A Final Four Celebration/Fan Appreciation for the University of Louisville women's basketball team will be held 6 p.m. Wednesday, April 15 at Fourth Street Live. The team will be welcomed by the UofL cheerleaders, band, Ladybirds dance team and more. For more information, visit www.uoflsports.com.

Third Energizing Kentucky conference April 15-16 in Lexington

Renowned author and scholar Jared Diamond will present the keynote address at the final conference in the Energizing Kentucky series, April 15, Hyatt Regency in Lexington. Diamond is a Pulitzer Prize-winning author of "Guns, Germs and Steel" and "Collapse: How Societies Choose to Succeed or Fail." He teaches geography and physiology at UCLA. Energizing Kentucky is a conference series created in collaboration by University of Louisville President James Ramsey, University of Kentucky President Lee Todd, Centre College President John Roush and Berea College President Larry Shinn. For more information, contact John Drees at 502-852-6739.

UofL community to learn about green initiatives, services in Louisville

The Student Activities Board is helping the campus community go green by hosting an event April 14, 11a.m. - 2 p.m. on the West Plaza and in the Red Barn. Community and campus organizations will participate. The goal is to promote green-friendly attitudes and habits among students on campus. For more information, contact Brandy Warren at 502-852-8025.

EXPERT SOURCE

Somali pirates

The U.S. Navy rescued an American ship captain last Sunday, leaving three Somali pirates dead. Pirating has become a major threat to boats around the Somali coast. What caused the rise in pirating?

- Raphael Njoku, associate professor of history, 502-852-3812 or re.njoku@louisville.edu

EVENTS

April 16: "Anticipating a New Golden Age," inaugural Andrew Chamblin Memorial Lecture and book signing by Nobel Prize-winning physicist Frank Wilczek of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, 7:30 p.m., Gheens Science Hall and Rauch Planetarium. Week's events highlight new physics and astronomy programs at UofL.

April 16: Community reception for Yearlings Club discussion series with College of Arts and Sciences, 6 p.m.-8 p.m., Yearlings Club, 4309 W. Broadway

April 20: "You Don't Have to Be Wrong for Me to Be Right: Finding Faith Without Fanaticism," lecture by author, broadcast host and rabbi Brad Hirschfield, 2:30 p.m.-4 p.m., Chao Auditorium, Ekstrom Library

What's Happening @ UofL is published by the University of Louisville's Office of Communications and Marketing. For more information, call 502-852-6171. Archived issues can be found at www.louisville.edu/whathappening.