

What's Happening @ UofL

Week of Nov. 10-17, 2008

UPDATE ON FEDERAL INVESTIGATION

There are no additional updates this week from committees formed in response to the federal investigation at the College of Education and Human Development.

OTHER NEWS

International scholars talk about election, world issues

Scholars from Norway and China will reflect on their country's response to the presidential election and discuss their own areas of multicultural research during a forum, Thursday, Nov. 13, 3 p.m. - 4 p.m. in Ekstrom Library, Chao Auditorium. For more information on the event contact Margaret D'Silva at dsilva@louisville.edu or call 502-852-6976.

Freedom Park makeover

Next Monday, Nov. 17, at 2:30 p.m., UofL and the Kentucky Transportation Cabinet will host a news conference to discuss details about the makeover of nearby Freedom Park. A media advisory will be sent out in advance of the event.

UofL scientist earns prestigious award

UofL professor of medicine Roberto Bolli is a winner of the American Heart Association's 2008 Distinguished Scientist Award. The award recognizes Bolli for his work on preventing heart damage during heart attacks. More information can be found at <http://php.louisville.edu/advancement/ocm/news/release.php?relid=1098>

Fight the flu from the comfort of your car

UofL Hospital will once again offer drive-through flu shots for the general public. The shot costs $25 and will be offered at Papa John's Cardinal Stadium today, Tuesday, Nov. 11, and Thursday, Nov. 13, from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. For more information or to download a registration form in advance, visit <https://www.uoflhealthcare.org/Default.aspx?tabid=378> or call the flu shot hotline at 502-333-6999. Medicare patients should bring their card.

Pollution center to help with new energy conservation program

Legislation passed this year requires all school districts to enroll in the Kentucky Energy Efficiency Program for Schools (KEEPS) by 2010. Some schools in Kentucky are getting an early start and are already working with UofL's Kentucky Pollution Prevention Center. For more information about the program see <http://php.louisville.edu/news/news.php?news=1276> or call KPPC at 502-852-0965.

ASK THE EXPERTS

How Obama's win changes world opinion of America

- Charles Ziegler, professor and chair of political science, 502- 852-3248, or cezieg01@louisville.edu

Did Obama's gifted oratory influence public opinion in the presidential campaign?

- Ede Warner, associate professor of communication and director of the UofL Malcolm X debate program, office 502-852-3522 and cell 502-905-4677.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Nov. 11 - "The Lincoln Memorial," architectural history lecture by Christopher Thomas, University of Victoria associate professor of art and architectural history and author of the book "The Lincoln Memorial and American Life," 6 p.m., Speed Art Museum, 2035 S. Third St.

Nov. 12 – Presentation on childhood obesity, 7 p.m., UofL Outpatient Center. Professor Robert Topp, UofL School of Nursing, will discuss a local program targeted to elementary school children. Media should contact Julie Heflin, 502-852-7987, in advance.

Nov. 12 - "A Way Out: Just Solutions for a World in Crisis," a forum on global challenges. Sponsored by the Muhammad Ali Institute for Peace and Justice. A Peace and Justice Week event. 6:30 p.m., Miller Hall First Year Resource Center. For more information, visit www.aliinstitute.louisville.edu.

Nov. 13 – New Music Festival, Comstock Hall in School of Music, 8 p.m. – 9 p.m.

Nov. 13 - weROCK iMovie Festival awards ceremony at Gheens Science Hall and Rauch Planetarium, 11 a.m.

Nov. 16 – Free showing of a historical documentary "Life in the Old Neighborhood: How Soon We Forget," at 2 p.m. in Chao Auditorium, Ekstrom Library.