University of Louisville

Mary Craik Scholarship for Women Students
Application for AY 2015-16

Deadline: Monday, March 2, 2015

In order to be eligible for this scholarship, you must:

- Be a woman student pursuing an undergraduate or graduate degree at Uof L;
- Have 24 hours completed college credit at the undergraduate level (as of January 2015);
- Have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.5.

Scholarship recipients will be competitively selected based on their recommendations and statements concerning their choice of education as a way to improve their lives. The funds for this scholarship are provided by an endowment fund by feminist activist Dr. Mary Craik, who successfully sued a state university for sex discrimination in a class action suit. Dr. Craik believes helping feminist women to pursue higher education will be her legacy, because they will put their education to work in the service of women’s equality. In the spirit of Dr. Craik’s efforts on behalf of women, the Scholarship Committee welcomes applicants.

This scholarship may be used only for tuition

Application Procedure
To apply for the scholarship, please submit:

1. This two-page application form, available at http://louisville.edu/artsandsciences/student
2. A one to two page statement about (1) as a woman why you have chosen getting an education as a way to improve your life and (2) your goals after graduation.
   (Applicants who are current recipients of a Craik scholarship need submit only this form requesting continuation of the scholarship and a current transcript indicating that they are making satisfactory progress toward a degree)
3. A transcript of your academic work (Informal U of L transcript is acceptable).
4. One recommendation from a college instructor from whom you have taken a course.
   (Use the form attached to this application). The recommendation must be returned directly to the Office of the Dean, College of Arts and Sciences.
