

University of Louisville Administrators' Roster

Office of the President	Title	Responsibilities	Educational Qualifications	Professional Experience	Additional Details and Qualifications
Gregory C. Postel http://louisville.edu/president/	Interim University President and Interim Executive Vice President for Health Affairs	The President's functions are as follows: A. To be the chief administrative and educational officer of the University and to perform such other duties and have such other powers as may from time to time be prescribed by the Board of Trustees. B. To make overall policy for all aspects of the academic and other functions of the University, coordinating with whatever individuals, groups, or organizations may be required. C. To recommend major policies and other major actions to the Board of Trustees for its final action and to be the official medium of communication between the Board of Trustees and the various segments of the University and their official bodies. D. To make final decisions for which the office has received delegated responsibility over a wide range of activities from the Board of Trustees; such actions are ordinarily taken after consultation with various concerned individuals, groups, or organizations. E. To enforce the rules and regulations of the University. See Article 2.1 (Section 2.1.2) of the Redbook: http://louisville.edu/provost/redbook/chap2.html#ART2.1 EVPHA Serves as a member of the Office of the President, which is the senior leadership team of the University, and is responsible for Health Sciences Center operations and planning as well as for increasing integration of the Belknap and Health Sciences campuses. See Article 2.2 (Section 2.2.3) of the Redbook: http://louisville.edu/provost/redbook/chap2.html#ART2.2	Doctor of Medicine (MD) Case Western Reserve 1988 Diagnostic Radiology Residency, Cleveland Clinic Foundation 1992 Neuroradiology Fellowship, Mayo Clinic Foundation 1994 B.A. in Chemistry College of Wooster 1984	Interim University President, University of Louisville 1/2017 – present Interim Executive Vice President for Health Affairs, University of Louisville 12/2015 – present Vice Dean of Clinical Affairs, University of Louisville 09/2014 – 12/2015 CEO, University of Louisville Physicians 08/2014 – 01/2016 11/2013 – 08/2014 (interim) Chair, University of Louisville Physicians 07/2011 – 01/2016 Chair, Department of Radiology, University of Louisville 04/1999 – 01/2016 07/1997 – 03/1999 (acting)	Dr. Postel has been with the University of Louisville School of Medicine since 1994, when he began as an Assistant Professor of Radiology and the head of the Neuroradiology section. Dr. Postel has played a key role in the formation and governance of numerous Health Sciences Center entities including Passport Health Plan and the Kentuckiana Medical Reciprocal Risk Retention Group. He was the Principal Investigator on an institutional grant to establish imaging research facilities at UofL. He is an active member of a number of academic societies including the American College of Radiology, Radiological Society of North America, was a board examiner for the American Board of Radiology and is a graduate of the Academy of Radiology Leadership and Management.
Dale B. Billingsley http://louisville.edu/provost/	Acting Executive Vice President and University Provost	The executive vice president and university provost manages both the day-to-day and long-term operation of the university. This office provides leadership for the academic and business sides of the university. The executive vice president and university provost not only is responsible for setting the university's course, through collaboration with faculty, staff and students, but also is charged with assuring that it stays on course. The executive vice president and university provost is an advisor to the university president and acts as president during presidential absences.	Ph.D., Renaissance Literature, Yale University 1977 M.Phil., Yale University 1975 M.A., Yale University 1974 B.A. in English and History, Texas	Acting Executive Vice President and University Provost 2016 – present Vice Provost for Undergraduate Affairs 2007 – 2016 Associate University Provost for Undergraduate Affairs 2003 – 2007	Dr. Billingsley joined the English faculty of the University of Louisville in 1978. In 1988 he was elected to the Executive Committee and in 1992 to the chair of the Faculty Senate, in which role he also served as the faculty trustee on the University Board of Trustees (1992-94). In 1998 he received the Trustees' Award for his contributions to the

University of Louisville Administrators' Roster

		See Article 2.2 (Section 2.2.3) of the Redbook: http://louisville.edu/provost/redbook/chap2.html#ART2.2	Christian University 1972	Acting Associate University Provost for Institutional Effectiveness and Assessment 2002 – 2003 Acting Assistant Provost for Internal Affairs 1995 – 1997 Director, University Honors Program 1986 – 1989 Professor, Department of English	student experience at the university. In 2007 he received the College of Arts and Sciences and the university Distinguished Service Awards for career of service. In 2009 he received the Harold Adams Award from the university's Office of Student Affairs In 2009, he also received the National Resource Center for First-Year Experience's Outstanding Advocate for First-Year Students award. In 2016, he was awarded the National Academic Advising Association's Michael C. Holen Pacesetter Award in recognition of his commitment to and advocacy for students and academic advising across the university.
Toni Ganzel http://louisville.edu/medicine/dean	Interim Executive Dean of Health Affairs And Dean, School of Medicine	As Interim Executive Dean, coordinates the clinical activities of the HSC deans on behalf of the Executive Vice President for Health Affairs, who is currently serving as interim university president.	Doctor of Medicine (MD), University of Nebraska Medical Center, 1979 M.B.A./Medical Group Management, University of St. Thomas, 2000 B.S., Microbiology, University of Nebraska at Lincoln, 1978	Interim Executive Dean of Health Affairs, University of Louisville 02/2017 – present Dean, University of Louisville School of Medicine 2013 – present 2012 – 2013 (interim) Senior Associate Dean for Students and Academic Affairs, UofL School of Medicine 2003 – 2012 Associate Dean of Student Affairs, UofL School of Medicine 2001 – 2003 Professor, Division of Otolaryngology, Department of Surgery	Dr. Ganzel joined UofL in 1983 as an assistant professor in otolaryngology. She served as Chief of Otolaryngology at Kosair (now Norton) Children's Hospital from 1989 to 2002 and Director of the Division of Otolaryngology at UofL from 1993 to 2001. Dr. Ganzel has been a member of numerous professional organizations, including the Kentucky Medical Association, the Association for Surgical Education, the Association for Research in Otolaryngology, the Society of University Otolaryngologists and is an American College of Surgeons fellow. Prior to her time at the University of Louisville, Dr. Ganzel was an Assistant Professor of Surgery at the Creighton University School of Medicine.

University of Louisville Administrators' Roster

William M. Pierce http://louisville.edu/research/about/william-pierce	Executive Vice President for Research and Innovation	The Mission of the Office of the Executive Vice President for Research and Innovation is to promote and support research, scholarship, and creative activities; to assist faculty and staff in obtaining intramural and extramural support; to serve as an advocate for the value of research in an educational setting; to enhance the vitality of campus-based research; and to encourage its use to enrich education, enhance technology transfer and serve the community. See Article 2.2 (Section 2.2.3) of the Redbook: http://louisville.edu/provost/redbook/chap2.html#ART2.2	Ph.D., Pharmacology and Toxicology, University of Louisville, 1981 Post-Doctoral Scholar, Stanford University, 1982 B.A. Chemistry, University of Louisville, 1977	Executive Vice President for Research and Innovation, University of Louisville 2011 – present 2009 – 2011 (interim) Dean, School of Interdisciplinary and Graduate Studies 2008 – 2009 (interim) Vice Provost for Graduate Affairs 2007 – 2011 Professor, Department of Pharmacology and Toxicology and Department of Chemistry	Dr. Bill Pierce joined the University of Louisville in 1982, as a Research Associate in the Department of Pharmacology and Toxicology. The department appointed him as an Instructor in 1985 and as an Assistant Professor in 1987. He is a member of many professional societies, including the American Chemical Society, the American Society for Mass spectrometry and the Society for Experimental Biology and Medicine. Dr. Pierce is also a Life Member of the Kentucky Academy of Sciences. He has received multiple university citations for his awarded U.S. patents, licenses and options of technologies. He has been selected for Distinguished Faculty awards for his service and research at the University of Louisville. Dr. Pierce is certified as a laboratory director at both the state and federal levels. He founded the university's blood lead monitoring and biomolecular mass spectrometry laboratories. He is the founder, president, CEO and CSO of Pradama Inc., a specialty pharmaceutical company focused on the development and commercialization of products to treat bone diseases.
--	---	--	---	---	---

University of Louisville Administrators' Roster

Administrative Officers	Title	Responsibilities	Educational Qualifications	Professional Experience	Additional Details and Qualifications
Ralph Fitzpatrick	Interim Vice President for Community Engagement	The Vice President for Community Engagement reports directly to the President. This position is responsible for serving as an extension of the President through service on various boards and committees, both within the University and in the external community. This position is responsible for coordinating university-wide community engagement and advises the President on matters relating to the university's strategic objectives in the areas of community and public affairs.	Ed.D., Higher Education Management, University of Pennsylvania, 2003 M.Ed., Vocational and Community Counseling, University of Louisville, 1975 B.S., Guidance and Counseling, University of Louisville, 1974 A.A., Pan-African Studies, University of Louisville, 1974	Interim Vice President for Community Engagement, University of Louisville 07/2017 – present Associate Vice President for Community Engagement 2003 – 2017 Special Assistant to the President, Acting Associate Vice President for External Affairs 05/2003 – 12/2003 Special Assistant to the President, Presidential Fellow 2002 – 2004 Special Assistant to the President for Minority Affairs 1986 – 2001	Dr. Ralph Fitzpatrick has over 40 years of experience in higher education. He began at the University of Louisville in 1974 as the coordinator of athletic academic services. He has served at UofL in a variety of roles, including as a project director, adjunct faculty, director of academic enrolment, associate dean and special assistant to the president. He served as Provost and Senior Executive Vice President of Simmons College from May 2012 until August of 2014. While Associate Vice President, Dr. Fitzpatrick has served as P.I. or co-P.I. on projects that brought in more than $10 million in grant funding to the university.
Bryan Robinson	Interim Vice President for University Advancement	The Vice President for University Advancement reports to the President. The position is functionally responsible for alumni relations, internal and external communications, integrated marketing, public relations, philanthropic development, advancement services, and public affairs.	Ph.D, Bellarmine University, ABD (2017) M.A., University of Louisville, B.S., University of Louisville,	Interim Vice President, University Advancement, University of Louisville 07/2017 – present Senior Assistant Vice President – Development, University of Louisville 2013 – 2017 Director of Development and Major Gifts, Indiana University Bloomington 2012 – 2013 Senior Director of Development and Major Gifts Officer, University of Louisville 2008 – 2012	Bryan Robinson rejoined the University of Louisville in 2013, as Senior Assistant Vice President for Development, after a stint as the Director of Development and Major gifts at IU Bloomington, where he co-planned a multi-billion dollar development campaign. He has a decade's-worth of experience in institutional major gift development, coupled with a background in commercial consulting and development, having co-founded a strategic fundraising consulting firm prior to his move to higher education.

University of Louisville Administrators' Roster

				President and Principal, Equity, Inc. 2002 – 2008	He is in his second tenure at the university, having begun at UofL as a Director of Development in 2008. Robinson is completing his Ph.D. in Higher Education Administration, having studied rural poverty for four years.
Tom Jurich	Athletic Director/Vice President for Athletics	The Vice President for University Athletics reports directly to the President. The position is the responsible officer for the University of Louisville Athletic Association and serves as athletic director. The VP for Athletics is authorized to act for the ULAA, in carrying out the functions according to the terms and conditions of the Management Agreement and Agency Agreement between the University and the ULAA. The Vice President advises the President on all matters relating to the university's strategic objectives in the areas of intercollegiate athletics.	B.S., Business Administration, Northern Arizona University, 1980	Vice President & Director of Athletics, University of Louisville 1997 – present (2013 – present, as Vice President) Director of Athletics, Colorado State University 1994-1997 Director of Athletics, Northern Arizona University 1988-1994	Tom Jurich joined the University of Louisville as Director of Athletics in 1997, having previously served in a similar capacity at Colorado State University and Northern Arizona University. He was named a university vice president in 2013. His tenure in the position has seen Cardinal Athletics enjoy an extended period of tremendous growth and accomplishment. Jurich engineered moves into two separate conferences, the Big East (2005-2013) and the ACC (2014-present). Jurich was inducted into the Kentucky Athletic Hall of Fame in 2006. He was selected as the 2007 Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal/Sports Business Daily Athletic Director of the Year, and he became the award's first two-time finalist in 2013. He was honored as the Kentucky Monthly Magazine 2013 Kentuckian of the Year. Jurich has overseen hundreds of millions of dollars in capital improvements to athletic facilities at UofL. The $14.5 million Thornton's Academic Center of Excellence opened in 2016 and expansion to the football stadium is currently under construction.

University of Louisville Administrators' Roster

					Jurich has served three years as a member of the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee. He sits on the Board of Directors for both Republic Bank and the American Heart Association.
Leslie Strohm	Vice President for Strategy and General Counsel	The Vice President for Strategy and General Counsel at the University of Louisville serves as a member of the President's leadership team and as chief counsel for the University. The VP is responsible for both University legal matters and government relations.	J.D., University of Michigan 1981 B.A., DePauw University 1978	Vice President for Strategy and General Counsel, University of Louisville 02/2015 – Present Vice Chancellor and General Counsel, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill 2003 – January Sonnenschein, Nath & Rosenthal, Equity Partner 1993-2003 Acting General Counsel Washington University 1993 Deputy General Counsel 1991 – 1993 Associate General Counsel 1987-1991 Assistant General Counsel 1984-1987	Leslie Strohm joined the University of Louisville in 2015. She has over 35 years of experience in the legal profession, almost 25 of which is in higher education. She also spent 10 years at a national law firm, where her representative matters included the restructuring of the affiliation agreements for a public university's medical center. Strohm is a member of the American Bar Association and the National Association of College and University Attorneys. She has published and presented on a variety of professional subjects, with an emphasis on the scientific, medical, legal, policy and social aspects of HIV/AIDS on college campuses.
Lee Smith	Interim Chief Operating Officer	The university's Chief Operating Officer (COO) is the senior operations executive for the university. The COO reports to the president and serves as a member of the President's leadership team. The COO oversees the university's offices of Business Services, Facilities Management, Information Technology, Performance Improvement and Business Analytics, and Public Safety and is the president's liaison with core constituency groups – students, faculty, and staff – regarding operational projects, policies, and processes.	Ed.D., University of Pennsylvania, 2017 (expected graduation date) M.Div., Yale University, 2003 B.M., Music Education, Furman University, 2000	Interim Chief Operating Officer (COO), University of Louisville 01/2017 – present Associate Vice President, Performance Improvement and Business Analytics, University of Louisville 2015 – present	Lee Smith joined the University of Louisville in 2015, as the Associate Vice President for Performance Improvement and Business Analytics. He was named the university's Interim COO in January 2017. Previously, he worked at the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB) and Emory University, in a variety of administrative roles related to

University of Louisville Administrators' Roster

			B.A., Furman University, 2000	Executive Director, Institutional Effectiveness and Analysis and Web Communications Manager, University of Alabama at Birmingham 2010 – 2015 Director of Student Academic Services Operations, Emory University 2008 – 2010 Academic Advisor, Emory University 2004 – 2008	business analytics and organizational communication. At UAB, he oversaw the projects to produce predictive models for forecasting outcomes for key performance indicators (KPI) and led development of self-service KPI reporting and visualizations. Mr. Smith is a frequent presenter on topics related to data analytics and business operations in higher education. He is currently completing a doctorate in Higher education Management at the University of Pennsylvania.
John Drees	Interim Senior Associate Vice President for Communication and Marketing	Reporting to the university president, the SVP for Communication and Marketing supports the chief academic officer, the executive vice presidents for health sciences and research innovation and the president's chief of staff to build, enhance, promote, and protect the university's image through strategic internal and external communications and marketing that support the goals articulated in the university's strategic plan. This individual is responsible for the development and implementation of strategic initiatives that promote the mandates and manage the communication, branding and marketing aspirations of a diverse academic enterprise. The senior associate vice president plays a critical role in supporting the university's strategic objectives in key areas including: student recruitment and retention, philanthropic support, research enterprise growth, and community engagement. The senior associate vice president oversees all aspects of the operation of the Offices of Communications and Marketing on both the Belknap and Health Sciences Center campuses. This includes the university's centralized efforts in marketing, advertising, communications, branding, media relations, internal communication, digital media, broadcasting, photography, crisis communication and issues management, special events and activities and the Visitors Information Centers. In addition, the senior associate vice president works with deans, vice presidents, department chairs and others to coordinate communication between the university's schools and colleges and their specific communities.	B.A., Communication, University of Louisville, 1984	Interim Senior Associate Vice President for Communication and Marketing, University of Louisville 01/2017 – present Associate Vice President, Communications and Marketing, University of Louisville 2006 – 2017 2005 – 2006 (acting) Director of Communication and Marketing, University of Louisville 2000 – 2004 Assistant Director, Communications and Marketing, University of Louisville 1998 – 2000 Manager, Public Information Office, University of Louisville 1991 – 1997 Internal Communications Manager, University of Louisville 1987 – 1991	John Drees has 34 years of professional communications experience, including 31 years in numerous roles at the University of Louisville. He joined UofL in 1986 and has served as public information officer, internal communications manager, the university's first web manager, director of media relations and associate vice president for communications and marketing, a position he has held since 2005. He assumed the interim senior associate vice presidency in January 2017. He has presented on communication issues at numerous local, state and regional meetings and earned more than three dozen state, regional and national public relations/writing awards. He has served on many university-wide committees and task forces and played a key role in the development and publication of the university's most recent strategic documents, the 2020 Plan and the University of the 21st Century Initiative.

University of Louisville Administrators' Roster

				Public Information Officer, University of Louisville 1986 – 1987
				Managing Editor, Louisville Skyline 1985 – 1986
John Elliott	Interim Associate Vice President for Human Resources	The Associate Vice President for Human Relations reports to the President and serves on the Finance and Administration leadership team. The AVP is responsible for leading the development and execution of a human resource strategy in support of the overall strategic direction of the university. The AVP HR provides executive-level leadership and management for all HR functions at the University and works closely with university leadership to solve complex organizational challenges through people-related solutions.	M.B.A., Troy State University Sorrell School of Business, 2004 B.S., State University of New York, 2002	Interim Associate Vice President for Human Resources 07/2017 – present Sr. Vice President, Chief Human Resources Officer, UofL Physicians 2011 – present (2017 as Sr. VP) Vice President, Human Resources, Dartmouth-Hitchcock 2009 – 2011 Director, Recruitment Services, Dartmouth-Hitchcock 2007-2009 Director, Human Resources, WakeMed Health & Hospitals 2006 – 2007 2004 – 2006 (as Manager) Manager, Human Resources, Baptist Health/UAB 2001 – 2004 Primary, Elliott Consulting Group, Inc. (corporate recruitment services) 1994 – 2001	John Elliott is a veteran of performance improvement management with more than 20 years of human resources experience. As chief HR officer for UofL Physicians, Elliott is responsible for human resources administration, talent management, human capital planning, compensation and benefits, policy development, HR systems, credentialing, and training and organizational development. Prior to joining UofL Physicians in 2011, Elliott was director of recruitment services, then interim vice president of human resources for Dartmouth-Hitchcock in Lebanon, N.H., a nationally recognized research and healthcare delivery system with a quaternary care referral network and 8,500 employees. He previously worked at WakeMed Health & Hospitals in Raleigh, N.C., a $1 billion, 7000-employee urban, Level 1 Trauma Center with 1000 operating beds. He held similar positions in Montgomery, Ala. with Baptist Health and in Asheville, N.C., where he started his own global recruitment consulting business. Elliott has a bachelor's degree in international business and finance from the State University of New York and an MBA from the Sorrell School of Business at Troy State University in Alabama. He has a diploma in advanced human

University of Louisville Administrators' Roster

Additional Administrators	Title	Responsibilities	Educational Qualifications	Professional Experience	Additional Details and Qualifications resources management from UCLA.
Cheri Jones	Interim Associate Vice President for Audit and Institutional Compliance Officer	The Associate Vice President independently assesses the university risk and control environment. Audit Services adheres to the Institute of Internal Auditors standards for the professional practice of internal auditing. The Associate Vice President reports to the President. Institutional Compliance is responsible for: developing a risk-based compliance assessment; assisting in the building of compliance consciousness in significant business processes, assisting the administration, faculty, and staff in identifying and reducing compliance risks that could adversely affect the University, and assisting the Compliance Oversight Council (COC) in carrying out all phases of the institutional compliance plan. Other responsibilities include oversight of HIPAA privacy and Information Security.	J.D., University of Louisville, 2009 MBA, Murray State University, 1989 B.S., University of Louisville, 1981	Interim Associate Vice President for Audit and Institutional Compliance Officer, University of Louisville 2017 – present Director of Audit Services, University of Louisville 2010 – 2017 Associate Director, Audit Services, University of Louisville 2001 – 2010 Senior Auditor/Facility Audit Director, Catholic Healthcare Audit Network 1998 – 2001	Cheri Jones has over 30 years of internal audit experience working in financial institutions, healthcare, and higher education. She has been at the University of Louisville since 2001, starting as the associate director of Audit Services. She is a Certified Public Accountant, a Certified Internal Auditor, and holds Certification in Risk Management Assurance. In addition to her responsibilities in audit services, she is the chair of the University's Risk and Compliance Oversight Committee and serves on the Strategic Technology Executive Committee (STEC).
Ingrid Gentry	Interim Associate Vice President for Finance/Controller	Reporting to the Sr. Vice President/CFO, this position serves on the Administration and Finance leadership team, and is responsible for oversight of finance, accounting, and reporting activities. The Associate Vice President of Finance/Controller leads all day-to-day finance operations and manages a team of finance and accounting professionals with functional responsibility for accounting, disbursements, including payroll and accounts payables, accounts receivables, Bursar, audit and tax compliance and financial reporting. This role serves as a key advisor to the CFO on long-range fiscal planning and financial services, with a focus on planning, major finance programs, financial controls, and decision-making systems and processes.	MBA, Northwestern University Kellogg Graduate School of Management, 1993 B.S., Wake Forest University, 1989	Interim Associate Vice President for Finance/Controller, University of Louisville 2016 – present CFO, Vice President – North America, Keurig Green Mountain 2015 – 2016 Senior Vice President, Brown-Forman Corporation 2013-2015 Vice President/Area Director, Brown Foreman Corporation 2002 – 2012 Assistant Vice president, Corporate Development,	Ingrid Gentry joined UofL in 2016, on a one-year interim appointment as the university's AVP for Finance/Controller. Ms. Gentry has over twenty years of experience in senior financial management, most at Brown Forman Corporation, a $4B global products and distilling firm based in Kentucky. In her final role at Brown Foreman, she oversaw a two-hundred-person finance team responsible for corporate planning, budgeting, Board and executive reporting, brand/region-specific resource allocation, performance analytics and management. In 2015, she left Brown Foreman to join Keurig Green Mountain, a $5B global coffee and consumer products firm, as CFO, Vice

University of Louisville Administrators' Roster

				Brown Forman Corporation 1997 – 2002	President. She led the company's largest division through the public-to-private transition following the sale of Keurig Green Mountain to a private equity firm, before deciding to return to Kentucky and join UofL.
James Sears	Associate Vice President for Facilities Management	The Associate Vice President for Facilities Management serves on the Administration and Finance leadership team and is accountable for planning, implementation, and operation of all campus building assets. The Associate VP for Facilities Management reports to the Chief Operating Officer (COO). The AVP is responsible for planning, program management, and implementation of best practices for all aspects of campus facilities and grounds operations, maintenance, and construction, including: direct management responsibilities for campus master planning; facilities operations (physical plant); building design and construction; real-estate and capital planning and implementation; grounds maintenance; and environmental health and safety. The AVP ensures projects are properly authorized, sufficiently funded, environmentally sound and completed in a cost-effective manner. The AVP oversees approximately 500 full time employees and a budget of $70 million.	M.S., Worcester Polytechnic Institute, 1995 B.S., Worcester Polytechnic Institute, 1979 A.S., Keene State College, 1977	Associate Vice President for Facilities Management, University of Louisville 2016 – present Associate Vice President for Facilities Planning and Management, Wayne State University 2000 – 2016 Director of Design Services, Wayne State University 1997 – 2000 Director of Plant Facilities, Northfield Mount Hermon School 1991 – 1997 Director of Physical Plant Services, Westfield State College 1988 – 1991	James Sears has almost 30 years of executive experience in higher education facilities management. He joined the University of Louisville in 2016, after almost 20 years at Wayne State University, where he oversaw capital construction/renovation projects totaling over $1 billion. His current construction oversight activities at UofL include leading design and construction of projects totaling over $250 million, including the new $80.4 million academic classroom building scheduled to open in 2018 and the $40 million expansion of the student activities center. Sears has been active in the Association of Physical Plant Administrators (APPA), serving as president of the Michigan chapter from 2001-2004. While at Wayne State, he was adjunct faculty in the Construction Management program, leading classes in Construction Management, Facilities Maintenance, and Building Systems. He has been a speaker at professional conferences on topics regarding higher education facilities and construction project management.

University of Louisville Administrators' Roster

Mark Watkins	Associate Vice President for Business Services	The AVP for Business Services serves on the Administration and Finance leadership team and is accountable for campus wide auxiliary operations, including Parking and Transportation, Postal, Card Services, Dining, Bookstore, Housing, Shipping and Receiving and Business and Printing Services, as well as, Contract Administration and Procurement Services; providing outstanding customer support, innovative delivery and exceptional quality to grow revenues while improving the value proposition. Watkins reports to the Chief Operating Officer (COO). Key Responsibilities include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strategic planning, operations, facilities, and budget oversight • Integrated performance standards for all services and programs • Design, establish, and maintain an organizational structure to effectively accomplish the University's goals and objectives • Identify and recommend enhancements of revenue generation capacity of the auxiliaries through improving existing programs and identifying new initiatives • Negotiate and manage various university-wide contracts • Identify partnerships with external organizations and project oversight, implementation and maintenance of services • Recruit, manage, develop and evaluate staff. 	B.S., Iowa State University, 1989	Associate Vice President for Business Services, University of Louisville 2016 – present Regional Vice President Operations (Education Division), Sodexo Education 2013 – 2016 Vice President, Operations, Sodexo Education 2003 – 2013 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Universities and Professional Sports & Leisure • Large Public Universities, • K-12 Schools Regional Operations Manager, Avi Foodsystems, Inc. 1999 – 2003	Mark Watkins joined the University of Louisville in 2016, after over 13 years as a Regional Vice President for Sodexo, Inc., where he led divisions specializing in services to universities, schools and sports/leisure clients. He has a proven record for creating successful, sustainable business models. Under his guidance, the Education Division of Sodexo accounted for over $275 million in annual sales, while achieving improved profit margins through modified delivery models. Mark has over 25 total years of experience leading the provision of Contract Management Services to universities, negotiating contracts and overseeing the delivery of services for up to 90 client universities at a time.
----------------------------	---	--	--	--	---

University of Louisville Administrators' Roster

Vice Provosts (Direct report to Provost)	Title	Responsibilities	Educational Qualifications	Professional Experience	Additional Details and Qualifications
James Begany	Vice Provost for Strategic Enrollment Management and Student Success	The vice provost has the overall strategic and tactical responsibility for undergraduate recruitment, retention, advising practice, and collaboration with academic unit-based advisors and academic support programs. This individual directs a staff of about 130 in Admissions, Enrollment Management, First-Year Initiatives, REACH (Resources for Academic Achievement - the university-wide academic success resource center), Registrar, Student Financial Aid, and Undergraduate Advising Practice, and works regularly with about 65 professional advisors who report to the deans of the schools and colleges.	M.S. in Computer Information Systems, Marshall University, 2003 Graduate Certificate in Applied Statistics, Pennsylvania State University, 2013 B.S., Geography, Ohio University, 1997	Vice Provost for Strategic Enrollment Management and Student Success, University of Louisville 2016 – present Vice President for Enrollment Management and Communication, Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP) 2011 – 2016 Associate Vice President for Enrollment Management, IUP 2007 – 2011 Executive Director of Enrollment Management, Medical University of South Carolina 2005 – 2007 Associate Dean of Enrollment Management; Director of Institutional Research; Director of Financial Aid, Marietta College 1996 – 2005 Director of Financial Aid, Shenandoah University 1994 – 1996	Jim Begany has 26 years of experience working in fields related to higher education enrollment management. The last fourteen have been at the executive leadership level of comprehensive public universities. He joined the University of Louisville in October 2016. He served as Vice President for Enrollment Management and Communication for almost 10 years at Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP) prior to coming to UofL. At IUP he was responsible for the creation of a division focused on student recruitment and communications and oversaw programs that resulted in significant enrollment growth. In addition to his enrollment management experience, Mr. Begany has executive experience in the areas of financial aid and institutional research. He has also served as an adjunct faculty member, teaching statistics courses for master's and doctoral level students.
Beth Boehm	Vice Provost for Academic Affairs and Dean, School of Interdisciplinary and Graduate Studies	The Vice Provost for Academic Affairs is responsible for general education and undergraduate programs as well as interdisciplinary and graduate programs. The vice provost works closely with the vice provost for strategic enrollment management and student success and the undergraduate deans in support of the university's undergraduate programs and with the graduate deans and unit faculties in support of the university's graduate programs. Undergraduate Affairs	Ph.D., English, Ohio State University, 1987 M.A., English, Ohio State University, 1984 B.A., Georgetown University, 1980	Vice Provost for Academic Affairs 2017 – present Vice Provost for Graduate Affairs October 2011 – 2017 Dean, School of Interdisciplinary and Graduate Studies, Sept. 2012 – present	Dr. Beth Boehm joined the faculty of the University of Louisville as an assistant professor of English in 1987 and has been a University Vice Provost since 2011. While at UofL, she has served in a variety of administrative and academic roles, including as director of undergraduate studies in English, as director of graduate studies in the Department of

University of Louisville Administrators' Roster

		Undergraduate affairs provides university-wide service and support for undergraduate programs and policies, general education (assessment and curriculum), undergraduate research, and the honors program. Graduate Affairs Graduate affairs provides university-wide service and support (including recruitment, admissions, orientation, and doctoral commencement) for graduate programs (master's, doctoral, and graduate certificate), academic success (counseling, degree check, and awards) and professional development and diversity programs that complement the curriculum. The vice provost for academic affairs serves as the provost's liaison to the Office of the Dean of the School of Interdisciplinary and Graduate Studies (SIGS), the Graduate Council (faculty), the Graduate Student Council, academic advisors, and academic support programs for graduate students.		2009-2012 (interim) Associate Provost for Faculty Personnel 2009-2012 Professor, Department of English	English, as vice chair of English, as vice chair and chair of the faculty senate. Dr. Boehm was twice awarded the College of Arts and Sciences Distinguished Teaching Award and was selected as a University Distinguished Teaching Professor in 2003. In 2009, she was awarded for her distinguished service by both the college and the university. In 2014-15, she was selected as one of 24 participants in the Academy for Innovative Higher Education Leadership sponsored by Arizona State University and Georgetown University.
Tracy Eells	Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs	The Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs works with the provost and academic deans to oversee all faculty personnel actions and to provide faculty and administrator professional development programs. Personnel transition services include coordinating and advising related to the university's promotion and tenure process; and assisting deans, department chairs and faculty with issues associated with hiring, retention, reviews, and sabbatical and medical leaves. The office offers an annual academic leadership program for department chairs and other administrative leaders. The office offers an orientation program for new faculty and deans, and a year-long new faculty professional development program. In addition, the office facilitates the nomination process for national and internal awards and recognition. The Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs serves as the provost's liaison to the Faculty Senate, and serves in an ex officio capacity on administrative searches and reviews. The Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs partners with the Vice Provost for Diversity and International Affairs to develop strategies for enhancing faculty diversity and inclusiveness.	Ph.D., Clinical Psychology, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, 1989 M.B.A., University of Louisville, 2001 B.A., Psychology, University of California, Santa Cruz, 1982 B.A., Political Science, University of California, Riverside, 1977	Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs, University of Louisville 2011 – present Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs, University of Louisville School of Medicine 2004 – 2011 2003 (acting) Administrative Director, Outpatient Psychiatry Practice Site, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences 2002 – 2004 Director of Business Operations, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences 2001 – 2004 Director of Administration, Planning and Development, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences, 2000–2001	Dr. Tracy Eells has served as Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs since 2011. He has been a member of the faculty of the University of Louisville for twenty-five years. Dr. Eells' primary area of scholarship is psychotherapy research, particularly clinical expertise in case formulation and computer-assisted cognitive-behavior therapy for depression. He has also published on academic issues such as promotion and tenure and post-tenure review. He was a visiting professor at the Vietnam National University (Hanoi) in 2010 and was named a fellow of the American Psychological Association Society for the Advancement of Psychotherapy in 2011. Dr. Eells chaired the Kentucky Board of Examiners of Psychology from 2003 to 2004 and was a member of the Association of American Medical Colleges Group on Faculty Affairs Transition Committee from 2006 to 2007.

University of Louisville Administrators' Roster

				Professor, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences Adjunct Professor, Department of Psychology and Brain Sciences	From 2006 to 2016 he served as Executive Officer of the Society for Psychotherapy Research, an international, multidisciplinary scientific organization. He maintains memberships in a number of professional organizations, including the American Psychological Association and the Kentucky Psychological Association. He is a licensed Psychologist in the Commonwealth of Kentucky (KY-00839).
Robert S. Goldstein	Vice Provost for Institutional Research, Effectiveness and Analytics	The Vice Provost for Institutional Research, Effectiveness and Analytics leads the Office of Academic Planning and Accountability (OAPA), which consists of three reporting units: Institutional Research and Planning (IRP), Institutional Effectiveness (IE), and Accreditation and Academic Planning (AAP). Direct responsibilities support several key university-wide functions, including institutional research, data analytics and visualization, strategic planning, and institutional effectiveness. Together with the Assistant University Provost/SACSCOC liaison, the Vice Provost is also responsible for all matters concerning institutional accreditation (Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, Commission of Colleges [SACSCOC]), program-level accreditation, academic program approval and review, educational affiliations, centers and institutes, tuition reciprocity, and the academic common market. The position also serves as the university liaison to the Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education (CPE) on academic-specific data matters.	M.P.H., Epidemiology and Biostatistics, Boston University School of Public Health/School of Medicine, 1990 B.S., Biology/Chemistry, Elmira College, 1984	Vice Provost for Institutional Research, Effectiveness and Analytics 2013 – present Associate University Provost for Academic Accountability, Institutional Research and Effectiveness 2008 – 2013 Director, Office of Institutional Research 2004 – 2008 Director of Epidemiology and Immunization at the Massachusetts Department of Public Health. 1998 – 2004	Bob Goldstein joined the University of Louisville in 2004 as the Director of Institutional Research and Planning. He has been an active presenter at numerous national conferences. He is a member of the Association for Institutional Research (AIR) and the Kentucky Association for Institutional Research (KAIR). He has held several executive leaderships within KAIR from 2009-12. Prior to working at UofL, he served as the Director of Epidemiology and Immunization at the Massachusetts Department of Public Health.
Susan Howarth	Interim Chief Financial Officer And Vice Provost and Chief Budget Officer	The CFO serves as the University's highest-ranking financial executive and provides both strategic and operational financial support to the University's President, Provost, Board of Trustees and other institutional leaders. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Responsible for the integrity and leadership of the enterprise-wide budgeting, accounting, payroll, and student financial services for the University and its corporate affiliates. Provide leadership and direction for the following offices: Office of Budget and Financial Planning, Controller's Office, Bursar's Office, Payroll, Position 	M.S., Finance, Northern Illinois University, 1986 B.S., Business Administration and Finance, University of Louisville, 1984	Interim Chief Financial Officer, University of Louisville 01/2017 – present; previously, 2013 – 2015 Vice Provost and Chief Budget Officer, University of Louisville 2016 – present	Howarth brings almost 30 years of enterprise-wide finance and administration experience to her current appointment as Interim Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of the University of Louisville. In a variety of roles, she has functioned as the university's most senior budget official since 2003, giving her the institutional experience and

University of Louisville Administrators' Roster

		Management, Human Capital Management Systems, and Financial Systems. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Oversees traditional financial infrastructure for the University and supports the instruction, research, and public service missions by providing cash management and treasury operations, the administration of investments, accurate and timely financial reporting, expenditure control, and a full array of other financial services. The Vice Provost and Chief Budget Officer is responsible for all aspects of strategic and operational financial planning, budgeting, financial analysis, position management, regulatory reporting, management reporting and analyses to assist the University in accomplishing its strategic mission and goals.		Associate Vice President for Finance and Business Affairs, University of Louisville 2013 – 2016 Director, Office of Budget and Planning, University of Louisville 2003 – 2013 Assistant Director, Office of Budget and Planning, University of Louisville 1999 – 2003 Policy and Budget Analyst, University of Louisville 1989 – 1999 (as Sr. Analyst, 1998-89)	knowledge to inform decisions in her interim role. Howarth is active in statewide budgetary workgroups – currently serving on the Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education (CPE) Statewide Funding Model Task Force and in the CPE CBO Group – and in broader professional organizations, such as SACUBO and NACUBO. She has been a guest lecturer for the UofL College of Education and Human Development on topics related to budgeting in higher education.
James Michael Mardis http://louisville.edu/studentaffairs/vp-office	Vice Provost and Dean of Students	The Vice Provost and Dean of Students is the chief student affairs officer for the University of Louisville, overseeing the areas of Campus Housing, Career Services, Counseling, Disabilities, Student Support Services (Grant), Student Involvement, Recreational Sports, Student Activities Center, Student Government, Fraternity and Sorority Life, Student Rights and Responsibilities, Dean of Students Office, Off-Campus Student Programs, Service and International Service Learning, Assessment & Planning, Student Grievance, and Student Advocacy.	Ph.D., Educational Leadership and Organizational Development, University of Louisville, 2007 M.Ed., Higher Education, University of Louisville, 1996 B.S., Sports Administration, University of Louisville, 1994	Vice Provost and Dean of Students, University of Louisville 2015 – present Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students, University of Louisville 2007 – 2014 Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students, Radford University June 2005 – July 2007 Dean of Students, Radford University 2002 – 2005 Associate Dean of Students, Radford University 2001 – 2002 Judicial Affairs Officer, University of Louisville 1998 – 2001	Dr. Michael Mardis has more than nineteen years of professional experience working in Student Affairs. He returned to the University of Louisville in July 2007, as the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students. A 1999 graduate of the Gehring Institute, Dr. Mardis has also previously served as the site coordinator and faculty member for the NASPA/SACSA New Professionals Institute, was the NASPA Kentucky Director for three years, and served on the NASPA Region III Board. He served two years as the ASCA National Coordinator for Communities of Practice on Threat Assessment and Behavioral Intervention Teams. He also served as the NASPA Excellence Award Chair for Violence Education and prevention, Crisis Management, and Campus Security. An active presenter at national conferences, webinars and regional

University of Louisville Administrators' Roster

				Acting Associate Director of Student Life, University of Louisville 1999	conferences, Dr. Mardis speaks on a wide range of topics related specifically to Student Affairs and higher education. He has served as an adjunct instructor for graduate programs at Radford University and the University of Louisville.
Gale S. Rhodes	Associate University Provost And Executive Director, Delphi Center	The associate university provost and executive director of the Delphi Center for Teaching and Learning, has the following responsibilities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide oversight for the SACS QEP. • Assist units with putting entire academic programs online. • Provide training and faculty development for faculty members putting courses online. • Provide support for the learning management system, Blackboard, so that it is an effective system in which faculty teach their online classes. • Provide faculty development opportunities for faculty teaching face to face classes. • Schedule meetings and conferences on Shelby Campus using both the Founders Union building and Burhans Hall. • Provide professional development opportunities to both Greater Louisville businesses as well as the university community. • Facilitate marketing plans for all of the units in the Delphi Center to adequately inform others of the opportunities available through the Delphi Center. • Provide fiscal oversight of the entire budget for this organization. 	Ed.D., Counseling and College Student Personnel, University of Louisville, 1994 M.S., College Student Personnel with an emphasis in Counseling, University of Tennessee, 1975 B.S., Sociology, University of Tennessee, 1973	Associate University Provost, Executive Director of Delphi Center for Teaching and Learning, University of Louisville 2008 – present Assistant University Provost and Director, Delphi Center for Teaching and Learning 2002 – 2008 Director, Distance and Continuing Education 2000 – 2002 Director, Academic Services 1987 – 2000 Associate Dean of Students/Director of University Studies, University of Central Arkansas 1984-1987	Dr. Gale Rhodes has over 40 years of higher education experience, including 25 years of experience in leadership roles. She came to the University of Louisville in 1987, having previously worked at both the University of Central Arkansas and Mississippi State University. She has served as an adjunct professor in both the College of Business and the College of Education and Human Development at UofL.
Mordean Taylor-Archer	Vice Provost for Diversity and International Affairs	The Vice Provost for Diversity and International Affairs oversees diversity initiatives at UofL on all levels. She has oversight of several programs, institutes and centers, and student organizations, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cultural Center • Office of Diversity Education and Inclusive Excellence • International center • LGBT Center • Muhammad Ali Institute for Peace and Justice • Women's Center 	Ph.D., Social Policy, Planning and Administration, Brandeis University, 1979 M.A., Sociology, University of Arkansas, 1972	Vice Provost for Diversity and International Affairs, University of Louisville 2001 – present Associate Provost, Diversity and Dual Career Development, Kansas State University 1996 – 2001	Dr. Mordean Taylor-Archer has over 30 years of administrative leadership experience in higher education, having served as an Assistant Dean at Virginia Commonwealth University, Associate Provost at Kansas State University, and as Vice Provost at the University of Louisville beginning in 2001.

University of Louisville Administrators' Roster

			B.S., Social Sciences, University of the Ozarks, 1969	Assistant Provost, Multicultural Affairs, Kansas State University 1990 – 1996 Assistant Dean of Social Work, Virginia Commonwealth University 1984 – 1990	Under her leadership UofL has received the Higher Education Excellence in Diversity (HEED) Award and The Minority Access Commitment to Diversity Award in 2014 and 2015. In addition, UofL has recently been recognized as one of the most LGBT friendly universities in the South by Campus Pride. She serves as the liaison and representative to CPE's Committee on Equal Opportunity (CEO), APLU's Commission on Access, Diversity and Excellence (CADE) and various community organizations.
--	--	--	--	---	---