

THOMAS M. JURICH
Jurich@louisville.edu

SKILLS SUMMARY Leadership of successful 23-sport major college athletic program with a budget of over $70 million and staff of more than 200.

EMPLOYMENT UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE October, 1997, to Present
Louisville, KY

Vice President & Director of Athletics

- Engineered U of L's historic move to the Big East Conference
- Attracted an impressive group of head coaches across the board, including energetic third-year head football coach Charlie Strong, 11th year men's basketball coach Rick Pitino, who took men's basketball to the Final Four in 2005 and 2012
- Took major steps to achieve gender equity, adding four women's sports programs and fully funding every sport
- Addressed multiple facility needs, raising over $150 million to build new or improved facilities for every sport over the last 15 years
- Academic success has risen dramatically, with all but two of 23 sports programs achieving a 3.0 collective GPA in 2011-12
- Developed comprehensive sports medicine partnership with Jewish Hospital
- Bolstered the community outreach arm of Cardinal Athletics
- Served nationally on the National Collegiate Athletic Association's Division I Management Council and Division I Baseball Committee
- Serve on the Boards of Republic Bank and the American Heart Association

COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY 1994-1997
Ft. Collins, CO

Director of Athletics

- Eliminated the departmental deficit, which dated back two decades
- Instituted "Group Smart" community outreach program for Northern Colorado
- Established a capital campaign to upgrade and add facilities
- Set CSU fund-raising and season ticket records for 1997

NORTHERN ARIZONA UNIVERSITY 1988-1994
Flagstaff, AZ

Director of Athletics

- Responsible for 14 men's and women's sports
- Won three all-sports trophies in the Big Sky Conference

NORTHERN ARIZONA UNIVERSITY 1986-1988
Flagstaff, AZ

Co-Director of Athletics/Men's Athletics

- Responsible for all men's athletic programs
- Directed marketing and development efforts for the entire athletic department
- Also Assistant A.D. 1985 to 1986, & Interim Special Asst. to the A.D. in 1984 and 1985

EDUCATION

B.S. in Business Administration

Finance & marketing emphasis, Northern Arizona University, May 1980