TRANSFER & PRIOR LEARNING CREDITS

We accept credits from regionally accredited institutions.

For more information on our policy, visit uofl.me/trf-credit-policy

DUAL CREDIT

The University of Louisville accepts dual enrollment (college credit earned while attending high school).

This credit will often meet one or more degree requirements and, in most cases, will fulfill UofL's Cardinal Core, general education requirements:

uofl.me/cardinal-core

ADVANCED PLACEMENT (AP) PROGRAM

Academic departments have designated the current policy for students who score 3 or higher. UofL's College Board code is 1838.

uofl.me/ap-credit

PRIOR LEARNING ASSESSMENT

We offer a unique course through our Organizational Leadership and Learning major called Prior Learning Assessment which allows you to gain course credit for previous work experience and even from accredited institutions. Whether your courses transfer directly or you gain credit through our Prior Learning Assessment course, we will help you maximize the courses you've already completed.

INTERNATIONAL BACCALAUREATE (IB) PROGRAM

Generally, course credit is awarded for scores of 5, 6, or 7 on either the Standard-Level or Higher-Level exam.

uofl.me/ib-credit

COLLEGE LEVEL EXAMINATION PROGRAM (CLEP)

CLEP is a national program of credit by examination offered at the University of Louisville. UofL accepts credit for 31 CLEP exams saving students both time and money.

uofl.me/clep-credit

AREAS OF STUDY

We encourage major exploration: Some students come to college ready to tackle their major. Others are still thinking about their career choices and trying to nail down the right fit. We understand. That's why we offer an exploratory program for students who are still deciding. uofl.me/exploratory

Build your own major: The Liberal Studies program has enabled students in the College of Arts and Sciences to create hundreds of undergraduate majors that are both individualized and interdisciplinary. What will you design? louisville.edu/liberalstudies

HOUSING

Living on campus gives students the chance to live at the epicenter of a vibrant student experience. Campus housing, including our affiliated properties, is available for students throughout their undergraduate careers at UofL. Students can choose from a variety of housing options, all equipped with modern amenities. Learn more at: louisville.edu/housing

TRANSFER STUDENT COMMUNITY

Housed at Cardinal Towne, this community helps transfer students transition to the Cardinal family. The community connects students who share the transfer experience and provides resources to support transfer students.

Learn more: uofl.me/transferhousing

Check out other themed communities like Army ROTC, Metro College and more at: uofl.me/lhc

Suite- and Apartment-Style Communities Traditional Hall Communities

These buildings offer suite-style or apartment-style rooms with semi-private and private bathroom options. They have the widest range of options for residents with buildings that are first-year residents only, mixed-level halls and upper-level only apartments.

- » Bettie Johnson Hall
- » Cardinal Towne
- » Community Park
- » Kurz Hall
- » Louisville Hall
- » University Pointe
- » University Tower Apartments

These buildings are only for first-year students and are double-occupancy rooms with community baths. These halls represent the most cost-conscious options and facilitate lots of interaction with other residents on your floor and in your building.

- » Miller Hall
- » Threlkeld Hall
- » Unitas Tower

Affiliated Communities

These affiliated properties are privately owned and operated apartment complexes that UofL recommends for students in their second-year or higher. Campus Housing does not manage these properties but works closely with them in regards to student safety and care.

DINING

Meal Plans

UofL's flexible and convenient student meal plans include access to a delicious range of dining options across campus. All students living on campus are automatically assigned a standard meal plan according to where they live, but also have the opportunity to upgrade their plan to satisfy individual dining preferences. It's eating made easy!

Meal Swipes: One meal swipe purchases an entire meal at the all-you-care-to-eat Ville Grill. If you'd like to eat at a different restaurant, you can use your meal swipes for a combo meal at on-campus dining locations.

Flex Points: Flex points are accepted at all on-campus dining venues, including our fast-casual restaurants and Cardinal P.O.D. Markets. One flex point is equivalent to one dollar, plus an automatic 6% discount on every purchase.

Community Park, Kurz Hall, Louisville Hall, Threlkeld Hall and Unitas Tower standard meal plan - $2,032* per semester

Bettie Johnson Hall, University Tower Apartments and University Pointe standard meal plan - $1,416* per semester

All off-campus residents/commuters/Cardinal Towne residents standard meal plan - $300* per semester

*Based on the lowest tier meal plan for the respective housing options.

On-campus dining costs are subject to approval by the Board of Trustees and may be changed without prior notice.

SUCCESS SERVICES | STUDENT INVOLVEMENT

Academic Support

Resources for Academic Achievement (REACH) supports the academic success of UofL students, helping them to be independent and successful learners. A variety of free tutoring services are available.

reach.louisville.edu

The Writing Center helps UofL students during all points in the writing process — from first drafts to revisions and copy editing.

louisville.edu/writingcenter

Disability Resource Center

The Disability Resource Center (DRC) fosters an inclusive campus climate through education, service, collaboration, and outreach to the UofL community. The DRC provides support for students with documented disabilities by promoting equal access to all programs and services.

louisville.edu/disability

Student Involvement

UofL is the place where you can explore your passions, open yourself to new ideas and experiences, and challenge yourself to become the person you want to be.

Student Organizations: There are more than 450 student-led organizations at UofL, covering a wide variety of interests. These groups are a great way to get involved in campus life and develop leadership, collaboration, interpersonal and communication skills.

- Groups representing academic, cultural, political and personal interests
- More than 50 intramural sports activities and clubs
- 32 fraternities, sororities and Greek organizations
- Campus, community and international service opportunities

louisville.edu/student/campuslife

Career Development

UofL's Career Development Center staff helps students expand major and career options by exploring jobs, internships and other resume-building experiences.

- Last year, more than 3,600 students participated in career and professional development through appointments, workshops, events and career fairs.
- Last year, more than 6,600 students completed internships or co-ops.
- The Speed School of Engineering and College of Business offer separate career services for students.

louisville.edu/career

Study Abroad

NEARLY 900
UofL STUDENTS
PARTICIPATE IN AN INTERNATIONAL
EXPERIENCE
EACH YEAR

UofL's Study Abroad program will expose students to new ideas and experiences across the globe.

louisville.edu/studyabroad

Leadership Development: Leadership experience in college gives you confidence and skills sought after in today's job market. In addition to participating in student organizations, you can also gain experience through UofL's leadership and professional development programs.

Diversity: You belong here. UofL is the most diverse university in the state of Kentucky so you'll find all types of people here. We come from different backgrounds; we have different beliefs and interests; we're from small towns and big cities; we're gay, straight, transgender; we're athletes, artists, engineers, caregivers, innovators, lifesavers and more - and we're all part of one, big Cardinal Family.

Community Service: Find yourself through helping others. UofL provides students opportunities to serve the community in several ways: global, green, veterans' initiatives, youth development, training and leadership, and programs for the elderly.

THE CITY OF LOUISVILLE AND OUR COMMUNITY

Because UofL is located in the largest metropolitan area in the state, there are exceptional off-campus learning, cultural and social experiences available to our students. Although there's always something exciting to do on our park-like and dynamic campus, there are also many opportunities to socialize and enjoy all the city of Louisville has to offer with your fellow students.
