

How will my credits transfer?

The Transfer Evaluation System (TES) is used to document course equivalencies between institutions of higher education. Follow the instructions below to see how courses you've taken at your current and/or previous institutions will transfer to the University of Louisville.

Step 1: Go to the Transfer Equivalency Resources page on the Office of Admissions Transfer and Adult Student Services website (<http://http://louisville.edu/admissions/apply/transfer/services/course-credit/transfer-evaluation-system-tes>).

Step 2: Click the “UofL’s personalized TES® site” to access TES.

Transfer Equivalency Resources

UofL generally accepts academic credit from regionally accredited institutions.

The course equivalencies provided are for information purposes only and subject to change due to revisions in course offerings. The decision regarding completion of general education or major requirements is left to an academic advisor or department. UofL does not transfer in developmental or technical courses.
