TRANSFER PATHWAY GUIDE

Associate in Science to Bachelor of Science in Organizational Leadership & Learning: Leadership, Training, and Organizational Development (LTOD)

Overview

Completion of the following curriculum will satisfy the requirements for the Associate in Science at the Kentucky Community and Technical College System and leads to the Bachelor of Science in Organizational Leadership and Learning (OLL) in Leadership, Training, and Organizational Development at the University of Louisville.

Admission Requirements

Direct admission to UofL's College of Education & Human Development BSOLL in in Leadership, Training, and Organizational Development program requires a cumulative 2.25 college GPA or higher. Students with a cumulative 2.0-2.24 college GPA will be considered for conditional admission. If an admissions counselor must consider the student's high school work and test scores due to the number of transferable hours, the student will be directly admitted with a cumulative 2.5 high school GPA and composite score of 21 on the ACT/total score of 1060 on the SAT. If any admission's criteria are not met up front, the student may submit a petition to the program/college.

Degree Requirements

Students must make a minimum cumulative UofL GPA of 2.25 and program GPA of 2.50, as well as pass their OLL core classes with a grade of C or higher. Lastly, the final 30 of 36 hours for this degree must be completed through UofL.
